Home Teams Easy Winners In Big Four Lacrosse League

Tecumsehs Start Out Well Against the Nationals, But Fall Away and Lose by 9 to 4.

MONTREAL, June 15.—Nationals defeated Tecumsehs here today by 9 to 4. The Indians started well, but could not keep up the pace.

Nationals—L. Heureux, Cattarinch, Duckett, Desaire, Clement, Lachapelle, Desnoes, Duford, Gauthier, Pitre, Lamoureux, Bonhomme, Brennan, referee—J. Brennan.

Judge of play—J. Tucker. The game was started in due course, but was cautioned for slashing by the referee over the head. Play for some time was of a "give-and-take" nature, each side having a fair share of the play, but neither side could score.

The Nationals, fed Gauthier persistently, evidently figuring that he could not catch. This he failed to do entirely, and at times showed signs of temper at being so closely checked. The quarter ended without either side having scored.

Second Quarter. Rain started in the second quarter, but not sufficiently to make the going uncomfortable. Nationals were aggressive from the start, and for a time it seemed as tho the Frenchmen honor of opening the ball in less than a minute. Score: Nationals 2, Tecumsehs 0.

Goals began to come quickly now. Nationals scored another for Nationals previous game, making Nationals 3, Tecumsehs 1.

A small fire in the grand stand provided a little excitement for a time, before the end of the quarter the goal after getting away from his cover. Score: Nationals 4, Tecumsehs 1.

The quarter ended without any further scoring.

Third Quarter. Nationals were again aggressive at the start of the third quarter, and their speed in the first two minutes was amazing. Fifteen seconds over the minute Boulianne scored a shot at Kinnaman. Hat, the Nationals were another to the goal. Score: Nationals 5, Tecumsehs 1.

Play became a little more exciting as the quarter progressed, and Tecumsehs began to show slightly improved form. Goals of a game all thru, at last found goal. Nationals 5, Tecumsehs 2.

A minute later Durkin netted another for the Indians, making the score: Nationals 5, Tecumsehs 3.

Nationals neutralized one of these three. Score: Nationals 5, Tecumsehs 3.

Gauthier was hurt and was replaced by Dussault. Third quarter over.

Fourth Quarter. A high wind added to the misty rain did not make matters any too comfortable at the start of the closing period. Nationals were early aggressive. Pitre, with a nice back-handed shot, scored seven minutes from the start. Nationals 6, Tecumsehs 3.

Boulianne made it 8 to 3 for Nationals on a long shot from the side of the goal. The Tecumseh defence became completely demoralized as the quarter progressed, and Lamoureux was allowed to net an easy goal, which trebled the score. Nationals 9, Tecumsehs 3.

Tecumsehs sent in Donald Smith to replace Durkin. Smith made his presence in the game felt by netting a long run in from center field. Nationals 9, Tecumsehs 4. Game over.

Torontos Defeat Irish-Canadians at Beach in the Rain by 7 Goals to 3.

The Torontos defeated the Irish-Canadians Saturday at the Beach by 7 to 3 before a good crowd, considering the weather. They played on a soggy field with rain falling throughout the game.

The line-up: Toronto—Goal, Gibbons; point, Harshaw; cover, McEwen; defence, third defence, Fitzgerald; centre, Dandeno; third home, V. Fitzgerald; second home, Long; first home, H. Scott; outside home, Kalls; inside home, Geo. Roberts.

Referee—Ed. St. Pierre, Montreal. Judge of play—Wm. McEwen, Ottawa.

First Quarter. Tommy Fitzgerald secured at the face-off and ran it down. On a pass in front of the rival goal the ball went high and the Toronto territory. After some muddle play, coupled with much slipping, Charlie Fitzgerald secured and getting the first for the first counter, in 2.5 minutes.

The Irish were keeping the rubber pretty well at the local end, but Fitzgerald's defence were on the job. Stagg and Harshaw intercepting some slaxers. Billy Fitzgerald dodged about half a dozen in a rush on goal, but shot wild. Donihoe followed with a similar play. Shortly after the ball was shot behind the nets. Kalls grabbed it and threw into the bunch. Billy Fitzgerald secured and getting the first tally for Torontos, in 3.5 minutes, evening the score.

The ball was now at Torontos, and the Irish seemed to be playing for breath. If Scott shot wild, Kalls scooped the ball from the net and about ten feet from the goal and tossed it in. Time 2.5.

Torontos are now bucking up and covering around the enemy's goal. Dandeno fired over the nets, and the Irish ran it back, only to be checked by Harshaw, who carried it down. Both teams are playing a stellar game, considering the grounds. Torontos' defence have the fast Irish home well covered. Marshall and Powers having the Scott brothers right in hand. Layden got the ball at centre and ran to the bare spot and shot, but Gibbons miraculously stopped it. The ball went back to the Torontos end, but the Irish secured and relayed it back. Henry Scott uncovered, shot from in front of the goal and bulged the lace in 10 minutes. A moment after the goal ended the quarter.

Torontos 2, Irish-Canadians 2.

and taking the ball down. But it soon came back. In a scuffle with a Macarosek scored in 7.05. Gibbons is doing the usual in stopping hot-shots. George shot from a couple of yards out, but Gibbons picked it out. Billy Fitzgerald puts pep in his playing. Beating C. Roberts to the ball behind the nets, he passed to Warwick, who scored in four minutes. A minute and a half later Kalls got the ball from behind and scored another. Torontos are doing heaps of body checking and getting away with it. The Irish looked to have a sure thing, but Gibbons stopped again, the ball glancing off to the side. By Scott and George ran for it, but Stagg bowled them both over on the slippery footing and saved the momentum. End of quarter.

TORONTO 6, IRISH-CANADIANS 2. Just when the game sounded the juice came down in Torontos.

Third Quarter. For the first few minutes honors were pretty evenly divided, each team having its share of the ball. The Irish brought it to the blue shirts' end and poured a fusillade of shots on Gibbons, who saved every time. Torontos did likewise on Brownan. Tommy Fitzgerald was body-checked on the picket line, but saved the ball in his customary style. The Irishmen are working hard to get by the stone wall defence of the Torontos. Both teams are there with plays that thrill. The Irish home rushed on the Toronto flag which resulted in a sally spill-of-burn man forms in a large puddle. From the scuffle George took the ball and saved neatly. The rain has now ceased and playing is not hampered so much. But quarter ended with no score.

TORONTO 6, IRISH-CANADIANS 2. Kenna and Mundy went on the Irish line-up in place of Fred Scott and George Roberts, who were both hurt. Mundy's career lasted about seven minutes.

Paddling in Squall Three Events Decided Beach Canoe Regatta

The Beach Canoe Club held their annual spring regatta over their half-mile course at Balm Beach on Saturday afternoon, under most unfavorable weather conditions and in very rough water. The clubhouse was gallily decorated with the club's colors and contained a large number of ladies, who thoroughly enjoyed the afternoon's sport. Blea's Band furnished an assorted program of first-class music to enliven the intervals between events.

The main event, the war canoe race, was called off for two weeks owing to the bad weather and heavy gales.

Levy's Special Prize-1, Lou Edmunds; 2, Jack Chisholm; 3, Jack White. Time 5.52 minutes.

For this there were four entries, who labored considerably in the heavy water. It was won by about three lengths, with second and third close together.

Double-blade tandem—1, Muirhead and Bell; 2, Edmunds and Kelly; 3, Orr and Fry. Time 6.01 minutes.

This proved to be a well-contested race, with the leading crews well up and fighting hard for victory. The heavy seas prevented good time from being made, but took none of the interest from the race.

Single-blade singles—1, Edmunds; 2, Berry; 3, Jones. D'Arcy Smith, a starter in this race, had a narrow escape from drowning when he was upset by the heavy swells at the starting point and had gone down twice before he was rescued by some of the club members putting out from the clubhouse in a canoe and picking him up. Edmunds, the winner of the race, was also dumped just past the finishing line, but was soon flung out.

The rest of the program was called off owing to the heavy downpour of rain and rough water. The remaining events will be pulled off on Tuesday and Thursday nights of this week, and some fine paddling should be witnessed.
