VETERAN SAYS MANY MEN ARE RE-ENLISTING

Sergt. C. T. Allin, C.E.F., 3rd Battalion, who recently arrived home at the residence of his parents, 573 Logan avenue, after three years service overseas, and receiving shrapnel wounds at the patter of vimy knoge, from which he is now recovering, stated to The world yesterday that many of the British soluters who have been thru the war are feenlisting for the army of occupation. For a radius of thirty miles on the east gans of the khine the German territory is occupied by British troops at the present time, the majority of whom are young soldiers, physically fit.

Sgt. Allin was stationed with his battalion at Wahn, a town about ten miles east of the khine, in which there was a large dynamite factory. This building was blown up and almost demolished, it is stated, by a spy, the day preceding the signing of the armistice.

In the town of Wahn there was sufficient food, but not an abundance, when the allies entered and took possession. The bread is coarse and of poor quality, and hard to masticate. The people treated the troops in a friendly manner, because they knew it would be to their disavantage to do otherwise," said Sergt. Allin.

ALL HALLOWS' CLUB SOCIAL EVENING

The last social evening in connection with the All Hallows men's Club was held on Thursday evening in Secord school, Barrington avenue, in the Daulotth district. About one hundred members turned out. Whist and euchre were held until 10.30 p.m., when refreshments were served.

The following contributed to an extensive vocal and instrumental program. Messrs. J. Tant, J. Hermiston, W. Bosley, and Mrs. Bosley and H. R. Holloway.

The first prize in ladies' euchre was awarded to Mrs. Cassels, Mr. Jolley carried off the gentlemen's prize. Miss Bowden and Mr. Hermiston were the winners of the prizes in whist.

In behalf of the members, Mrs. Bowden presented Mr. Henry, the retiring chairman, with a Landsome pipe. In accepting this little token of esteem, Mr. Henry thanked those present for their extreme kindness during his period of office.

The following were elected as officers of the association for the coming season: Chairman, Mrs. Bowden; vice-president, Mr. Ritter; secretary, Mr. Whiston; treasurer, Mr. Henry.

"The government housing scheme in its present form is no use and not workable," said a prominent official of York township council to The World yesterday. "A man had better rent his house than adopt the offer, He would be money in pocket, or the following reason, namely, By borrowing $3,000 to build his house, by he end of 20 years he would repay $6,000 or the loan, just exactly 100 per cent., n principal, interest and taxes. Who is going to handle the proposition for the government?" enquired the official. "Not the municipalities; they have not the machinery and have no means of coping with the extra expense entailed in the handling of the scheme. Then the only other way is for the government to issue the loans direct to the man wanting the oan and save intermediate charges."
