

TORONTO DOUBLED SCORE BEATING THE GREYS 6-3

In Second Game of Series—Torontos Still Continue to Hit the Ball—Meek Stole a Base.

Toronto made it two straight yesterday, doubling the score on Providence. Currie was on the slab and did good work. The Torontos are still batting, and it looks as if they had struck their gait.

Newark, Buffalo and Jersey City were the other winners. Won. Lost. P.C. Buffalo 14 7 .667 Newark 13 8 .613 Rochester 11 8 .579 Providence 10 12 .455 Montreal 10 13 .435 Jersey City 7 13 .350

Games to-day: Providence at Toronto, Newark at Rochester, Jersey City at Montreal, Baltimore at Buffalo.

Toronto 6, Providence 3. The Torontos kept up their batting streak, begun on Monday, and won the second game of the series from Providence yesterday by 6 to 3. The features of the game were Meek's pick-up of Frick's low throw in the seventh, Toronto's two double plays and a double steal by Frick and Thoney, resulting in Thoney scoring. Meek surprised the crowd by stealing a base.

Providence scored two in the first. McFarland was given four balls. Poland struck out. LaChance singled, scoring McFarland and Poland. Rock was out at first. Toronto pulled off two double plays in the second and third, retiring the side. In the ninth, Providence scored one. Brodie opened with a three-bagger, scoring on LaChance's hit over second.

Toronto got busy in the first. Thoney led off with a two-bagger. Frick followed with a three-base hit, scoring Thoney. Roman was out at first. Meek hit two bases, scoring Frick. White flew out to Brodie, and Meek scored on Tamsett's two-bagger to left field. Tamsett scored on Long's hit over third. Long was out trying to steal second.

The composition of the attacking division is what is bothering the Cornwall executive, and it is likely that there will be one or two new faces on the team that line up against Montreal on Thursday. The management of the Cornwall has decided to spend no time coaxing any players who may be likely to give a chance in the series. It is rumored that Corby Hess will be home by June 1, but will not leave for May 24. By the time it will be noticed that Cornwall will have a very strong team this season.

Women's Golf Tournament. Englewood, N.J., May 22.—A field of 32 players took part in the preliminary round of the annual championship tournament of the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association, which began yesterday on the links of the Englewood Golf Club. Among the most prominent of the competitors were two former champions, Miss Elizabeth Hurry, Te-Sout, Richmond County, Staten Island, the present metropolitan title holder, and Miss Georgiana Bishop, of the Brooklawn Club, Bridgeport, Conn.

The women played from the men's rest, going over the full course under the supervision of the men's national championship next July. The playing length of these links is 3200 yards. Eighty players qualified for the championship, and the other 24 are divided in three eights, who will play on during the week for three other cups.

Following are the scores of the eight who qualified for the championship: Miss Georgiana Bishop, Brooklawn, Conn., 53; Mrs. E. F. Stout, Richmond County, S.I., 55; Miss Elizabeth Hurry, Englewood, N.J., 58; Miss Julia Mill, Englewood, N.J., 100; Mrs. S. F. Lorrain, Englewood, N.J., 102; Mrs. H. Pottemer, Richmond County, S.I., 102; Miss K. Travers, Nassau, L.I., 101; Mrs. E. F. Skanford, Essex County, N.J., 108.

English Golf Championship. Hoylake, England, May 21.—The twenty-first annual championship for the amateur golf championship began here to-day on the links of the Royal Liverpool Golf Club. Full weather prevailed. The present holder of the championship is A. G. Barry, and there are 166 aspirants for the honor of depriving him of the title, including C. B. MacDonald of New York and P. L. MacLennan of Oregon. The former was giving a walk-over in the first round, his opponent, L. Martin, of the Dublin Golf Club, scratching.

CORNWALL AT PRACTICE.

White and Deegan Were Out and Don Cameron Will Be in Game.

Cornwall, May 22.—(Special).—Twenty husky players, all of senior calibre, spent two hours of steady work on the Cornwall grounds this afternoon under the watchful eye of Coach Grady. Among those who in uniform were John White and Fred Deegan, who figured in last season on the Tecumseh and Stratford respectively. Both are in fairly good shape. Donald Cameron will be down Thursday morning, and will play with the factory team in Montreal.
