WHERE IS NEWSTEAD?

Guelph Farmer is Still Missing—Traced West.

Guelph, April 4.—There seem to be no new developments with regard to the disappearance of Mr. Archibald Newstead to-day. Mr. Newstead apparently had made no move to come to the city, as his train was found in the barn. He was seen by two men going west on the railway track yesterday. It is said that he had met with some difficulty in obtaining the necessary money to meet a note he had given in part payment for the farm he had recently purchased, and his friends think that he had become discouraged on account of this fact, and in consequence, took the step he did.

CITY NEWS.

University Convocation Hall.

When the project of building a Convocation Hall for the University of Toronto by subscription from the alumni was suggested a short time ago, a tentative canvass of the faculties was made, and some $6000 was subscribed. This was so encouraging that the Executive Committee of the Alumni Association decided upon a general canvass, and the work of securing subscriptions was handed over to the committees.

The University of Toronto Alumni Association, Convocation Hall.—I hereby subscribe $— to the fund for the erection of a Convocation Hall for the University of Toronto, one-half of this amount to be payable on June 1, 1902, and the balance on June 1, 1903, subject to the condition that $50,000 be subscribed before the date of the first payment.

A number of these forms have already been signed and returned to the secretary of the Alumni Association, who reports that the subscription from the various years, in arts and medicine, to date, are as follows:
