At the Princess Theatre next week, "Babes in Toyland," described as a musical extravaganza, will be a feature. It is a most expensive affair, a great many people being concerned in its production, and a large amount of scenery being necessary. It is a fairy extravaganza, with a fanciful story, enlisting such characters as Tom-Tom the Piper's Son, Little Red Riding Hood, Contrary Mary, Bo Peep and others of that ilk. The play is divided into three acts, with nine separate and distinct changes of scene, such one said to be more beautiful than the other. The story was written by Glen Macdonough, and the music, which is far above the average to be found in such entertainments, was composed by Victor Herbert, undoubtedly one of America's greatest writers of music. Some of the best known numbers are: "Don't Cry, Bo Peep," "Mary, Mary," "I Can't Do That Sum," "Rock-a-Bye Baby," "Toyland," and "My Castle in Spain." Among the principal members of the company are Ignazio Martinelli, Mabel Harrison, John F. Ward, May de Souza, Berle Wynn, Vince Twomey, Katherine Murray, Joseph Greene, Charles Guyer and Gus Fiskley. There are nearly 100 in the chorus, and the production was staged by Julian Mitchell. Miss Mabel Harrison, the principal comedienne, will on this occasion make her debut before an audience of her town-people and friends. The curtain will rise promptly at 8 o'clock at the evening performance, and at 2 o'clock for the Wednesday and Saturday matinees.

"Quincy Adams Sawyer" is intended to depict with entire naturalness and with no straining for dramatic effect a picture of real life as seen among the Berkshire Hills, in Massachusetts, introducing characters of genuine flesh-and-blood types as are familiar to everyone who has ever passed a day in a quiet country village.

Sarah Macdonald, who will be seen in "Fabiola Roman" at the Majestic Theatre, is a Toronto girl, who will on this occasion make her debut before an audience of her town-people and friends. The curtain will rise promptly at 8 o'clock at the evening performance, and at 2 o'clock for the Wednesday and Saturday matinees.

Next week at the Star Theatre, Robie's Big Show, the Knickerbocker Burlesquers, will hold forth. According to reports, the Knickerbocker Burlesquers, in the past, come replete with a variety of novelties. During the action will be introduced one of the latest European novelties, "The Musical Babes," "La Danse du Surpasse," and "Lida," will be presented by the Knickerbocker's usual collection of novelty girls. A thoroughly original cast has been secured, among whom being William Patton, Sam Green, Oscar Lewis, Church City Quartet, Marie Richmond, Anna Wilson and Emma McVey.

Lawrence D'Orray's last appearance in Augustus Thomas' comedy, "The Earl of Hawtucket," will be made at His Majesty's Theatre, Montreal, tonight. Out of the 14 weeks that have been played 10, or nearly 900.

Miss Henrietta Crossman is coming back to Toronto, and will be at the Princess Theatre, the Toronto of May 22. It is several years since Miss Crossman has appeared in this city. In "Miss Nell," she made such a hit in New York that she had a run of two seasons in that comedy. "Miss Nell" will be the offering all the week, except on Tuesday night and at the Wednesday matinee, when the double bill "Nance Oldfield" and "Madeleine" will be presented. The seat sale for Miss Crossman's engagement opens next Thursday morning.

"Fabiola Roman," the famous and enormously successful dramatization of a Marie Corelli's remarkable novel, "The Vendetta," will be the attraction at the Majestic next week as the case in all of Marie Corelli's works, this is a story which shows the woman's power in a quiet country village.

By special request "As You Like It" will be included in the repertoire of Ben Greet's pastorial, to be given here on Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday, June 7, 8 and 9. Speaking of the production by this company in San Francisco, Blanche Farrington says: "Nay, but pen and ink is poor stuff to paint an 'As You Like It' like yesterday's. Shakespeare himself would have joyed in it—one hopes he was there, behind one of the waving elms or by the company that towers over the lawn where Ben Greet and his players walked, in the morning of his genius, could have sung the freshness, the fine simplicity and delicate frolic humor of the thing."

BOMB DESTROYS ITS BEARER SAVES WARSAW'S GOVERNOR

Two Detectives Following Suspected Workman Also Killed—Assassination Was Planned.

Warsaw, May 19.—A workman who was trying to avoid the observation of two detectives on Miodowa street at noon to-day stumbled on the curb of the sidewalk, and a bomb which he was carrying in his pocket exploded, killing the workman and both the detectives, and wounding some persons who were passing by.

It is believed that the bomb was intended for Governor-General Moszcowitch, who was expected to pass the spot on his way to the cathedral to attend the service in honor of the czar's birthday.

The bodies of the victims were literally blown to pieces. A café near the scene of the explosion was entirely demolished, all the windows in the neighborhood were smashed, and a lamp-post was torn out of the ground.

The explosion occurred only a minute before the people commenced to pour out of the cathedral. Three minutes later the governor-general was expected to arrive at the cathedral to attend the service in honor of the czar's birthday.

NO TRANTS TO HIGHWAYS THAT DAY HAS NOW PASSED

Ex-Premier Ross Objects to Method of Financing University Scheme.

The legislature will not prorogue till the middle of next week. Satisfactory progress has been made in the house the past week, but the printers are far behind and many bills require to pass a couple of stages yet before the work is completed.

When the house went into committee yesterday on Mr. Whitney's bill to amend the university act, the university scheme, the money given to the General Hospital and the money distributed among the other hospitals.

The premier said it was remarkable that Mr. Ross was bound that nothing should be done for the university except over his body. The other day his deputy had offered no criticism of the government's university policy, except that it had done for the opposition.
