

FINANCES.

For some time back we have been compelled to make payment for the papers of one year, with the grant for the next. In the last report the hope was expressed, that with the extra allowance from the Deacons' Court, we should be able to begin 1893 clear of debt. That hope has not been quite realized, although our indebtedness has been reduced from $150.00 to $9.74; with the ordinary grant and the ordinary expenditure, we should have had a considerable surplus, which might have been profitably spent in the library or elsewhere.

MEETINGS.

The devotional meetings of Sabbath afternoons, and the monthly business meetings have been successfully continued during the year, the average attendance at the latter being 18, as compared with 15 for 1891.

Respectfully submitted.

I. GAMMELL,

Secretary.
