BIG LOSS TO COMMUNITY

City Represented at Funeral Held From Family Residence Today.

The remains of William Gray, M.P., whose death occurred at Victoria Hospital on Tuesday morning, were laid to rest this afternoon in Woodland Cemetery. The funeral services were conducted at the family residence by Rev. D. C. MacGregor, paster of St. Andrew's Church, Mr. MacGregor, in his sermon, made reference in his opening remarks to the consideration of comforts when one is face to face with death.

"We are comforted by the fact that it is a universal experience that fails to the lot of every one alike. We are comforted by the fact that in our greatest sorrows we have the sympathy of our fellowmen, and above all the fellowship of Jesus Christ," said the pastor. Quoting from the 14th chapter of St. John, he said: "In My Father's house are many mansions I go to prepare a pleas for the speakers congratulated the new minister on his appointment and or the cood work he had a real three cood work he was a real three cood work had a rea self, that where I am there you unto be also." I go to prepare a place for you. I will This," said Rev. MacGregor, "Is the who had served at the front be given new conception of death that Jesus Christ has given us."

Jesus Jesus Industries at the front be positions before the men who simply content to wear military Speaking of Mr. Gray, the pastor paid a glowing tribute to his memory. "In his home he was a loving husband and a kind father. In social and political life he was true to his friends and generous to the control of the control o and generous to those who opposed him. He conceded the right of every man to his own opinions.

"In his official position he regarded himself as a servant of his constituents. No one ever came to him o enlist his sympathy in a worthy cause without receiving his generous help. The community loses a strong man in the death of William Gray," ε fid Mr. MacGregor in closing his ad-

Chicago, Dec. 15.—Developments in connection with Germany's peace proposals swept wheat values more sensationally downward today than did the first peace offer from Berlin three days ago. A wild rush of selling began this morning as soon as the market opened. The immediate incentive was the announcement from the German embassy at Washington that universal limited disarmament would be discussed at any peace conference seeking to end existing hostilities. The effect of the breaks in the New York stock market and the current reports that Great Britain and her allies at least would not reject peace offers outright, left the wheat bulls with no support.

Some of them claim that they will sent overseas at once and attached active service units. This is not generally believed to be the case, as the officers having resigned, are actually out of the army and have no claim of any kind on it.

No definite finding has so far been given out, as a result of the court of inquiry, which was held last month on the affairs of the 118th. The board, it is stated, was not empowered to make a finding, but on the other hand was only asked to collect evidence, which was to be handed over to Major-General W. E.
