WINNIPEG GRAIN MARKET.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 30.—Wheat today dropped 2½c for October, 2½c for December and 2½c for May. Oats were ¾c lower for October and ½c down for December. Barley was up 1½c. Flax dropped 4½c for October, 4c for November and December 4c. The market today was brisk and actively bullish, but turned quiet and expectant just before the close. Good export buying was in evidence early, altho a considerable amount of short selling took place. Wheat railied slightly from the low points in the late trading. The cash market was firm.
