Steamer Lansdowne, Captain Bissett, will leave port tomorrow to place a new flash light buoy off Point Lepreaux in the rlace of the one there now.

A meeting of Court Log Cabin, I. O. F. will be held this evening when a full attendance is requested as there will be a large number of candidates for initiation.

Rev. Mr. Anthony will deliver a lecture this evening in the school room of the Leinster St. United Baptist church under the auspices of the Young Peoples' Association. Silver collection.

Alderman Frink announced definitely this morning that he would not be a candidate for mayoralty honors in the approaching civic elections. He will probably offer again as alderman-at-large.

An afternoon tea is to be held on Monday, March 2nd, by the Ladies' Association of the Church of England Institute in the school house of St. John's (Stone) church, kindly loaned for the occasion. Time, from 4 to 6 o'clock. It is hoped that a large number of the members and their friends will attend what bids fair to be a very bright function. The music which is to be provided should prove an attraction, and there will be a candy table furnished with sweets of the very best quality.

D. A. McLeod came in on today's Boston train.

Alderman Frink announced definitely this morning that he would not be a candidate for mayoralty honors in the approaching civic elections. He will probably offer again as alderman-al-large.

The regular monthly meeting of the common council, which was to have been held on Monday next, has been post-poned until the following Monday as the estimates were not completed at last night's meeting of the treasury board.

Dennis Murphy, who was reported by I. C. R. Officer Scovil Smith, for violating hackmen's regulations at the Union Depot was before Judge Ritchie this morning, when he pleaded guilty. As this was his first offence he was allowed to go on suspended sentence.

Seventy blue-jackets of the crew of the surveying ship Egeria arrived from Equimault, B. C., and will go to England by steamer Lake Manitoba for a month's furlough. The detachment was in charge of Lieut. Hawley and Surgeon Davidson and was quartered at the Grand Union.

The seventh annual at home of St. Peter's Y. M. A., held in their hall, Douglas avenue, last evening, was very largely attended, about 300 people being present. The president, E. J. Mahoney, traced the history of the organization and an excellent musical and literary programme was carried out.

As the rooms in the basement of the Tabernacle Baptist church used by the Rockwood J. T. of H. and T. are being used in connection with evangelistic meetings, the meeting tonight will be held at the home of Stirling Stackhouse, 159 Prince street, west end, a full attendance is requested.

In spite of the approach of the provincial elections considerable interest is already being manifested in the civic contests. A number of new candidates will make their appearance among them J. H. Mosher of west end, who will be in the field against Ald. Baskin in Guys ward. Mr. Mosher has many friends in the west side and should make a strong candidate.

CHARGES THEFT OF $6

A citizen complained at the police court this morning that a former employe had helped himself to six dollars belonging to him. It seems that the young man who had worked for the complainant had, after leaving his service, collected the amount named and appropriated it to his own purposes. The case will probably be heard Monday.
