

The Times

VOL. IV., NO. 251. ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, JULY 25, 1908. TEN PAGES—ONE CENT.

CONTESTANTS MARATHON TELL HOW RACE WAS RUN

Hayes and Forshaw Talk of Grilling Grind from Windsor to the Stadium—Hayes Ran Very Hard During Last Stage of the Great Race.

London, July 25.—If the beginning of the Olympic games showed some like warmth in the United Kingdom, the opening papers today amply reflect the enormous interest and enthusiasm aroused by the strange scene witnessed in the stadium yesterday. There is but one voice, however, in the whole heated tribune to the greatest of the American victors, together with the fullest sympathy for the pitiful fate of Durando.

CENT LODGED IN HER THROAT

Carleton Place, Ont., Woman Was Almost Strangled by a Copper.

Carleton Place, July 24.—Mrs. W. Jackson, of this town, had a rather unpleasant experience last Sunday evening when she accidentally swallowed a Canadian cent. She was amusing the children by flipping a copper when she accidentally swallowed it. The coin stuck in her throat and almost strangled her, and medical aid had to be secured before relief could be obtained.

PRONOUNCED "DEAD" BUT ASKED FOR FOOD

Wealthy Young Farmer Recovers from Drowning and Wants His Dinner.

Vienna, Mo., July 24.—Pronounced dead after all efforts toward resuscitation had failed to produce the slightest sign of animation, and laid out on a board, Peter Frey, a wealthy young farmer, whose body had been taken from Gaosende river, arose to a sitting posture at the dinner hour, and asked for food.

CLAIM TO OWN PART OF A TOWN

Heirs of an Early Settler Claim Part of the Town of Wenatchee, Washington.

Spokane, Wash., July 24.—One hundred and thirty acres of land valued at $1,000,000, and forming part of the business and residence districts in the town of Wenatchee, Wash., the home of the big red apple, west of Spokane, is claimed by the heirs of D. Wolop, to whom the government issued a patent in 1890. Mrs. Wolop died before the patent was issued.

KIND WISHES FOR IRELAND

President of A. O. H. Would Rather See Her Poor and Rebelious Than as a Prosperous Loyal British Province

Indianapolis, July 24.—The report of National President Matthew Cummings of Boston to the biennial convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians has been the chief topic among the delegates. The address was received with applause.

NEWS FROM FREDERICTON

St. John and Fredericton Tennis Players are Meeting Today.

Fredericton, N. B., July 25.—The tennis match between St. John and Fredericton is going on here today under favorable weather conditions. Play was commenced at seven o'clock and will be continued until evening. Thirty sets are to be played. The local players have been practicing hard of late and are confident of achieving a victory.

KITCHEN INVADDED BY A POISONOUS SNAKE

Mrs. Smith's Pie Making Came to a Sudden Finish When Her Visitor Arrived.

Great Barrington, July 24.—While baking pies at her home in Ashley Falls, Mass., Mrs. H. Smith was startled by a large spotted adder hanging six feet above her head and trying to cross from the chimney to the stove.

ROW OVER A GIRL ENDS IN MURDER

Rival Suitors for Alabama Girl Fight and One is Killed.

Birmingham, Ala., July 25.—Albert E. Robertson, a well known young pharmacist, was shot and killed last night by Albert V. Thompson. The trouble arose after the death of a young woman to whom both men were paying attention.

FIGHTING AT TABRIZ

Heavy Cannonading Going on and Casualties are Placed at 200.

Tabriz, July 25.—A heavy cannonade is reported, has been going on at Tabriz. According to advices received here the casualties number 200.

WHICH FACE

Dinks—I was attacked yesterday by a snake. Winks—Yes? Dinks—No way of escape.

THE EEL

How doth the busy little eel Improve his life divine, By sneaking underneath the keel And swallowing your line.

NEEDLESS QUESTION

The City Boarder—Has your son Hiram a college education? The Countryman—Didn't you see his hair and the clothes he wears?

A NEW WRINKLE

Myrle—Grace is a girl of ideas. Natica—Yes; she put flypaper under the sofa to catch her little brother.

SURE

The Man—How dare you to arrest me. My reputation spoils. The Detective—But you ain't. I spotted you a week ago.

BE KIND TO YOUR TOYS

Some children have a way of tearing and breaking their toys to pieces as soon as the newness has worn off them. These children have the same small regard for their clothing and their rooms and books.

DE BEERS MINES TO CLOSE

Diamond Company Decides Upon Further Retrenchment

London, July 24.—A Kimberley dispatch says it has been officially announced that the De Beers Diamond Company has decided upon further retrenchment on account of hard times.

COUGH MEDICINE KILLED BABY

Adams, July 25.—The death of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Juras of this town was caused by a dose of a patent cough medicine.

A GIFT FOR THE PRINCE

Ottawa, July 25.—A set of new Quebec temporary stamps has been presented to the Prince of Wales at Quebec in small gold boxes, enclosed in a case of Morocco leather and inscribed.

NOT A PLEASANT TOPIC

"When I owned the Central Railway," began Mr. Peter Binks this morning, in the course of a chat with the Times reporter—and then he stopped abruptly and said no more. His expression changed,

CABMAN AS LOST HEIR

Romance of a Pension Created by Charles II.

London, July 24.—In 1661 Charles II, fleeing from the defeat of the battle of Worcester, was hidden by a loyal farmer named Richard Penderel in what has been known in history as the Boscombe oak. In gratitude for the farmer's services the king granted to Penderel and his heirs forever a pension of 800 s.

DE BEERS MINES TO CLOSE

Diamond Company Decides Upon Further Retrenchment

London, July 24.—A Kimberley dispatch says it has been officially announced that the De Beers Diamond Company has decided upon further retrenchment on account of hard times.

COUGH MEDICINE KILLED BABY

Adams, July 25.—The death of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Juras of this town was caused by a dose of a patent cough medicine.

A GIFT FOR THE PRINCE

Ottawa, July 25.—A set of new Quebec temporary stamps has been presented to the Prince of Wales at Quebec in small gold boxes, enclosed in a case of Morocco leather and inscribed.

NOT A PLEASANT TOPIC

"When I owned the Central Railway," began Mr. Peter Binks this morning, in the course of a chat with the Times reporter—and then he stopped abruptly and said no more. His expression changed,

WOLFE AT HOTEL WITH MONTCALM

Descendants of the Great Soldiers are in Adjoining Rooms at Quebec During Tercentenary.

Quebec, July 25.—In adjoining rooms at the Chateau Frontenac are two guests at the celebration in which Canadians will feel greatly interested. One is a direct descendant of General Wolfe, the victor on the Plains of Abraham, and the other is a representative of the family of the great French general who gave his life in an heroic effort to save the French army.

EMBEZZLER WALKER WILL PLEAD GUILTY

Hartford, Conn., July 24.—William F. Walker, who embezzled $265,000 from the Savings Bank of New Britain and about $50,000 from the Connecticut Baptist Convention, reached this city tonight in custody of Thomas F. Egan, superintendent of the state police department and H. J. Hoffman, assistant superintendent of the Pinkerton Detective Agency in Los Angeles, Cal., the man who arrested Walker in a mining camp about 100 miles south of Escondido, Mexico.

MEXICANS AND INDIANS IN A DESPERATE BATTLE

Tucson, Ariz., July 25.—In a desperate battle between Mexican troops and Papago Indians last Tuesday, at the Imaculada Ranch, near Barstow, Colorado, a mining camp in the altir district of Sonora, nineteen Indians and two soldiers were killed and five soldiers wounded, according to a report received last night.

LATE PERSONALS

Miss M. G. McSorley, of the nursing staff of McLean Hospital, Waverley, Mass., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George McSorley, St. John, West.

DETAIN PRIEST AS ANARCHIST

New York, July 24.—Held up because of the receipt at Ellis Island of letters alleging that he uttered anarchistic sentiments, the Rev. Stefan Bozko, a Serbian priest, is under examination by the authorities at the immigrant station.

NEW BICYCLE RECORD

Salt Lake, Utah, July 25.—F. A. McFarland, of San Jose, Calif., won the ten mile open professional championship at the Salt Palace Cycle Track last night, breaking the world's record of 21:28.5, made by W. M. Sampson here August 15, 1905. McFarland's time was 21:28.15.

SEVEN DEATHS REPORTED AT THE OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH FOR THE WEEK ENDING TODAY, AS FOLLOWS: Phthisis, meningitis, paralysis, epiphora, chronic bronchitis and tubercular meningitis, one each.

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER