VESUVIUS WILL BE SHOWN IN ERUPTION. Splendid Show Booked at the Nickel Theatre Today.

Last night's crowds at the Nickel were of the record-breaking kind, and from 7 until 10.30 o'clock not a seat was unoccupied. The great Victoria Falls pictures and Mr. Cairns' song were the most popular items on the long programme, and it will be good news to those who were not present to know that Mr. Cairns will sing his hit-song, Love Me And the World is Mine, again tonight. It will be impossible, however, to repeat the Falls scenes, as they are booked for Monday today and Saturday. Nevertheless, pictures equally absorbing, if not more so, will be presented. They are: A Trip Through and About the City of Naples and an Ascent of Mount Vesuvius, the world's most violent volcano. This feature will be a revelation to people who have not travelled afar and will be instructive for the children on Saturday. The next best feature will be a Bullfight, the Love Affair, or a story of a Spanish matador, his capricious sweetheart, and a tragic finale during a genuine bull fight. The pictures of the great Vesuvius area during the progress of the fierce fight, last month's tea minutes, are highly exciting. A Wonderful Gipsy Band, colored film of the French ballet and transformation variety, very gorgeous and bewitching. The laughs are forthcoming in Save the Pieces, a ludicrous affair.
