PROSPECTUS OF A WEEKLY PAPER, TO BE ENTITLED THE NEW-BRUNSWICK RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL. To be published at the Office of THE CITY GAZETTE, as soon as a sufficient number of Subscribers shall be obtained to justify the undertaking. ALEXANDER M'LEOD, Editor.

IN an age which with peculiar propriety is denominated, "the age of improvement," and in a Colony of the British Empire, which is now fast rising in importance, and in which the means of knowledge are increasing and taking a wider range,—it has been suggested,—that as true Religion, sound principle, and good morals, are the foundation of every thing that is truly great and excellent in man; that whatever has a tendency in any measure to promote these, in a proportional degree entitled to favourable consideration, and to continuance and support from the Public. Periodicals, having religious instruction for their basis, have in other places been found to be a most efficient auxiliary to the labours of Gospel Ministers, and have greatly contributed to the diffusion and spread of the sacred and saving influence of Religion, and of "whatsoever things are true, just, lovely, and of good report." In compliance with the earnest and repeated requests of persons deeply interested in this subject, and with a humble hope that it may in some small measure, at least, contribute towards so desirable an object, the present work, though with much diffidence, is intended to be undertaken.

The New-Brunswick Religious and Literary Journal, as its title imports, will be occupied chiefly with matter of a religious nature and character, and as opportunity offers, with articles on literature and science, domestic economy, and general information. In the religious department will be given, choice selections of Memoirs and Biographical accounts of persons of different religious denominations, who have been eminent for their piety, and their literary attainments and usefulness; well authenticated accounts of the spread of vital religion; extracts from Missionary and Bible Society, and Sunday School and Tract Society publications and reports, &c. &c. In making these selections and extracts, while a proper respect will be carefully cherished towards the publications and established institutions of Great Britain and her dependencies, yet, having the vast world before him, the Editor will have no hesitation in extracting from the publications of other countries, whatever he may suppose to be applicable to the circumstances of this and the neighbouring Provinces, and that may in any measure conduce to the prosperity of Religion, to the improvement of Public Institutions, and to the amelioration and improvement of morals.

That this publication will have a favorable aspect towards the doctrines which are taught, and the discipline which is exercised, among that body of christians, with which for many years the Editor has been, and is now connected, may reasonably be anticipated; but, that it shall breathe a liberal, catholic, and friendly spirit, towards other denominations of christians, may with equal confidence, be expected.

As there is not at present, either in this or in the neighbouring Province, in a course of publication, any work of a similar character, it is presumed that the Editor will not be thought to trespass upon, or even interfere with, any other man's field of labor. And as in a religious point of view, the circumstances and the wants of both Provinces are nearly, if not quite similar to each other, whatever may be found substantially useful to the one, cannot be altogether inapplicable to the other. If this idea be correct, it may not be considered as presuming too much, if a favourable concurrence from the friends of religion in Nova Scotia, be anticipated.

As usefulness on the most extensive scale, in the department already mentioned, is the principal object designed in this publication; articles from any quarter having this object in view, well written, and conceived in a liberal spirit, will be carefully attended to. But, as the Editor will solely be accountable to the public, for the matter which it shall contain, he must always be understood to have reserved to himself, the right of exercising his own discretion upon the articles which may be offered.

TERMS.—The New-Brunswick Religious and Literary Journal, will be published Weekly, at the City Gazette Office, in Quarto form, on a royal sheet, at 15s. per annum, exclusive of Postage. One half payable in advance, the other half in six months.—All arrears must be paid before any subscription can be discontinued, except at the discretion of the publisher. Ministers of any denomination are authorized and respectfully requested to act as Agents. To any such, and to other authorized agents, procuring and forwarding to the Publisher ten responsible Subscribers, one copy will be sent gratis.

All communications involving facts, must be accompanied with the proper names of the writer. Saint John, September 8, 1828.
