HIS WEEKLY TALK ON WAR SITUATION

General Maurice Speaks Of Italy and The East

Hopeful As To Italy

Danger is on Northern Front—

Defeat of Von Falkenhayn's

Preparations For Capture of

Bagdad

London, Nov. 15.—In his weekly talk to the Associated Press yesterday, General F. B. Maurice did not attach vital importance to the fact that the Germans have already succeeded in crossing the Piave river at one point, as he said only a small force had crossed and the Italians should be able to deal with these adequately.

"The Italian line on the right," said General Maurice, "is the shortest one for them and was the line originally fixed by Cadorna when he began his withdrawal. Every day that the Italians hold this line makes the situation more encouraging. The next line of defence is the Brenta, and the next after that the Adige, but both are much longer than the Piave line.

"One danger to the Italians is their northern, or mountain front. If the enemy of our operations is the Italian forces in the plain. On the other hand, the mountain front is one which should be easily held.

"There is much reason for optimism about the Italian situation on the Piave.
They have been established there now for several days and have had time to rest and improve their positions. Meanwhile the German lines are getting longer and more difficult. Bridges must be repaired and the German rail heads are a long way back, so it takes much time to get up guns, ammunition and supplies.

Regarding operations in the eastern theatre, General Maurice says: "The German line in the east is the eastern theatre is the defeat of Von Falken-hayn's preparations of the capture of Bagdad. General Maude's latest move up the Tigris succeeded in destroying the Turkish stores of ammunition piled up for this enterprise. Having accomplished this, Maude has now fallen back to his old position, and there is no point in prolonging communications to no purpose."

"Meanwhile, General Allenby has been striking a powerful blow on the Palestine front. The forces opposing Allen-by have been very rough and hard.
They have lost half of their effective and must be reinforced from the army entrenched in the desert. It has been preparing at Aleppo for the Bagdad attack."

Leaders were under renewed pressure at the opening of today's stock market, overnight developments provoking further moderate liquidation. Union Pacific, Utah Copper and Republic Iron yielded an average of a point, offset, however, by gains of one and a half points for Reading, Canadian Pacific, Southern Railway preferred, Marshall and Baldwin Locomotive. An early fractional loss in U. S. Steel was soon retrieved.

New York, Nov. 15.—(Wall Street, noon).—The market rallied during the lull first hour on the firmer tendency displayed by Canadian Pacific, Atten-dantly and Marine preferred, but reacted sharply when metals began to weaken.
Utah Copper losing three points. Before noon all early strength was lost, leaders in general falling under yesterday's final prices. Sentiment was adversely influenced by the weakness of Liberty bonds, the 4s dropping from 98.80 to 99.24, the 3 1/2s making a new minimum on their decline from 89.20 to 88.44.

THE CORN MARKET.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Prospects of an increased crop movement resulting from a more liberal policy of the government to ease down the corn market. Attention was also given to fresh efforts of the food administration to bring about a low range of food prices as a means of enlarging the meat supply.

Embargoes on two prominent eastern railways count likewise as a weight on the market. Opening prices, which ranged from the same as yesterday's for one-half cent lower with December at 1.13 1/4, and May at 1.15 to 1.15 1/4, were followed by a slight reaction and then by a moderate general decline.

Canada's Victory Bonds

WHY should you subscribe for Canada's Victory Bonds?

BECAUSE our National safety is at stake, and Canada must have money to support our soldiers fighting in France.

This Bank will accept Victory Bonds to the amount of $1,000 from any one person for safekeeping for one year without charge.

Loans will be made to wage earners on favourable terms for the purchase of Victory Bonds.

How much will this enable you to subscribe for?

APPEALING STORY IN CIRCUS PICTURE, THE VAUDEVILLE IS FINE

Gem's New Programme Excellent in All Particulars and Very Much Enjoyed

The Gem's new programme was keenly enjoyed last night. It opened with "A Circus Romance," a five reel picture featuring dainty Muriel Ostriche.
The scenes in the city of the circus were entertaining; it was like being at the fenced grounds. The story of the picture is interesting and well told.

Babbette, the butterfly dancer of a big Southern show, is loved by Pete, another performer. She is the daughter of Eena Buttermilk, a church where she is playing, but neither knows of the relationship, as Buttermilk's wife, who is Zaida, the fortune teller of the show, had been deserted by Buttermilk many years before.

Babbette learns the secret of her birth through a box of papers to which her mother carries the key always with her.
The church people are shocked when Babbette goes to Buttermilk's house.

makes known her claim, and is taken into the home, Buttermilk according to her demand through fear that his present wife will learn of his previous escapade.
She makes friends with Mrs. Buttermilk, but the junior warden of the church, who attempted familiarity with Babbette in the show, is her special detestation.

The church people demand that Buttermilk send the girl away or resign his church position. The rector and the girl overhear the committee, the rector asks her to marry him, but she declines, and Buttermilk decides to resign, but Babbette goes to Mrs. Buttermilk to say good-bye.

Buttermilk comes in and tells his wife the story of his early marriage and is forgiven, but Babbette goes back to the circus and Pete, who is welcomed in friendly fashion by the rector and Buttermilk, and all ends well.

Miss Louise Arkady proved a clever entertainer indeed. She is an accomplished violinist and a vocalist of high class, and she is of very pleasing appearance and daintily groomed. After playing several selections on the violin with exquisite taste and in a glorious tone, she sang a number very pleasingly, and in response to an encore gave another vocal solo, sung in excellent voice and with pleasing expression. More violin num-
