ANOTHER ROLL OF HONOR UNVEILED

The Knights of the Round Table of Portland Methodist church held an anniversary celebration in their rooms on Sunday afternoon. The auditorium was artistically decorated. A large number of members were present and thoroughly enjoyed an interesting programme. Frank W. Merrill presided. The programme was as follows: Reading of Scriptures by Chester Brown, reading by Glendon Cunningham, solo by Walter W. Merrill, address by R. H. Maxwell, in the course of which he outlined the work accomplished during the year, unveiling of a roll of honor by Arthur B. McIntosh, who also gave a short and appropriate address. The names on the roll of honor are: Ray Kirk, William Kirk, Lawrence Lincoln, Roland Kingston, Fred Clarke, Walter Fowler, John Wright, William McAulay, Lloyd Yeomans. The function was brought to a close by the singing of the national anthem.

TO BRING COAL HERE
J. Willard Smith has received word that the schooner Arthur M. Gibson has sailed from Bridgeport, Conn., for New York to load coal for this city.

ACCIDENT
Thomas Walker of Bridge street, while stepping off a street car at the corner of Douglas Avenue on Saturday evening, was struck by a team and sustained painful injuries to his face and side. He was able to proceed home, but has since been confined there.

TO PAY CITY BILLS
Among the business to be dealt with at the weekly meeting of the common council this afternoon is the passing of an order authorizing the city chamberlain and comptroller to continue payment of accounts from the first of the year until the estimates for 1916 are passed.

ADJUSTING FIRE LOSS
Adjusting the fire insurance losses on the W. H. Thorne & Company stock and building is proving a slow process owing to the extent of the damage and the great quantity of stock involved. It may be several days before the adjusters will be able to make up their totals.

DIED IN ROXBURY
Mrs. Rosana, widow of Patrick McGinn of this city, died recently in Roxbury, Mass. Mrs. McGinn was ill only a short time with pneumonia. She leaves one son, Mathew of Boston, and one daughter, Mrs. P. Welch of Roxbury. Many friends in this city will regret to hear of her death.

THE NEW POST OFFICE
It is expected that the early part of next week will see the transfer of the staffs from the old post office to the new. The understanding is that about the middle of January the renovation of the old building will be about completed, and it will be ready for occupancy by other government employees.

CONGRATULATIONS
Friends in St. John will be pleased to learn that Wilfred L. Walsh, son of Frank Walsh of Simonds street, has been appointed traffic manager with Drummond, McCall, Ltd., iron and steel manufacturers, Montreal. Mr. Walsh has many friends here who will wish him still further success.

PRESENTATION TO SOLDIER
At the home of Mrs. Maxwell, Champlain street, West Side, on Saturday evening, a pleasant time was spent in honor of Joseph Maxwell, of the 104th Battalion, who was made the recipient of a wrist watch by the gathering. It was presented by his uncle, George Maxwell, with best wishes from those present.

GARNETT-GRAY
On Christmas evening at the home of Walter W. Gray, 280 St. James street, West End, his sister Helen Edith Gray and John L. Garnett were united in marriage by Rev. W. Camp. The bride was attired in a pretty checked suit and carried a bouquet of carnations. The room was decorated in red, white and blue and the marriage took place under the Union Jack. Mr. and Mrs. Garnett will spend two months in the city and then will leave for their future home in the west. They were the recipients of many gifts and their friends unite in wishing them happiness and prosperity in their home in western Canada.

RUNAWAY
Yesterday afternoon a horse owned by Joseph T. Quinn ran away in Main street, and caused commotion. When the teamster in charge was proceeding down Main street, his express wagon came in contact with a sloven owned by Ready's Breweries, Ltd., which was standing on the right side of the street facing Douglas Avenue, and the shafts broke. The horse became frightened and dashed down the street, narrowly escaping striking a little girl and woman who were crossing the street. After proceeding for some distance the horse was brought to a stop, but not before the wagon had been badly damaged. The horse was also cut about the legs as a result of coming in contact with the broken wagon.

THE LIQUOR LICENSES

Applications for license to sell spirituous liquors in the city will close this afternoon with J. B. Jones, inspector. Up to noon fifty-one applicants had submitted their names for retail business licenses; twelve for wholesale, seven for hotel, and three for breweries. Wm. O'Keefe had not again applied, and up to noon no one had applied in his place. The only new applicant among the retailers is Harold Harley, who is applying for the license held by his cousin, M. E. Harley in North End.

An additional hotel application has been made by C. M. Bostwick for the Dufferin. Mrs. E. Foster also applied. The first-named applicant is understood to have done so to protect himself as owner of the building, he being without knowledge concerning the renewal of the lease by the present lessee.

TODAY WITH THE SOLDIERS HERE

An Expression of Thanks For Citizens' Christmas Hospitality

A quiet week is being enjoyed by the men in uniform about the city as drill is considerably broken up on account of holiday leave. Those who were on duty for Christmas will now have a chance for furlough, and on Thursday night will be given leave over New Years. On the return of all ranks to duty an active programme of training for the volunteers will be inaugurated.

Arranging Quarters
No definite announcement is yet possible with regard to the opening of the quarters of the 115th in the Agricultural Hall. Workmen are still busy making the accommodations necessary for the battalion there. Its ranks are steadily increasing and following the campaign for recruits to be initiated it is expected that it will not be long before it is filled.

Expressing Thanks
The commanding officer and all ranks of the 115th Battalion wish to thank the many citizens of St. John who so kindly invited the men stationed in the city to join in their Christmas dinner. The men thoroughly enjoyed the Christmas hospitality offered them and every one greatly appreciated the courtesy extended the battalion.

Attached for Training
Lieut. Ernest Baker 28th Dragoons, and Lieut. Stewart Bell, 62nd Fusiliers, have been attached to the 140th at West St. John for instruction and training. Both completed a course in infantry training at the last school of instruction in Halifax.

Personal
Frank R. Fairweather, 64th Battalion is in the city on a short leave of absence from Halifax.

Today's Recruits
Three volunteers signed the roll of honor this morning at the Mill street recruiting office, two for the 115th—Harold C. Fiddle of City road, and Wm. J. Merrill of 44 Brook street—and one for the siege battery—James J. L. Gressley.

Military Honors at Funeral of James Ellsworth of Detention Company

The funeral of James Ellsworth of the 62nd regiment, Detention Company, took place this morning from his late residence in Queen street to St. John the Baptist church where regular high mass was celebrated by Rev. F. J. McMurray assisted by Rev. Julien Paquin, chaplain of the 69th Battalion. The choir was assisted by members of the 69th. Interment took place in the new Catholic cemetery. The bugle band and a firing party from the 69th preceded the hearse and members of the Detention Company walked behind it. At the grave the buglers sounded the last post and the firing party fired a salute of three volleys.

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson took place this afternoon from her late residence, 100 Leinster street. Services were conducted by Rev. Gordon Dickie and interment took place in Fernhill.

The funeral of John Murphy took place this morning from his home in Kingsville to St. Rose's church where regular high mass was celebrated by Rev. Charles Collins. Interment took place in Holy Cross cemetery, Sand Cove.

The funeral of John W. Fowler took place this afternoon from his late residence, Church Avenue, Fairville. Burial services were conducted by Rev. P. Hayward and interment took place in Cedar Hill.

The funeral of Miss Lauretta Akerley took place this afternoon from her late residence, 75 Chesley street. Following services, interment took place in Cedar Hill.

The funeral of Mrs. Stephen S. Thorne took place this afternoon from her late residence in Carleton street. After services, interment took place in Fernhill.

LETTER FROM ST. JOHN MAN WITH THE 52ND

A letter from Bandsman Kenneth C. Todd, formerly of North End, who enlisted in this city with the 52nd Battalion, tells of his being in good health and enjoying camp life in England. The battalion was given a hearty reception on its arrival in England, and while passing through the various towns to the camp, the men were hospitably treated by the citizens. An Exeter lunch was served to them by the mayors, and at each place was a small card from her, extending good wishes to the men.

Bandsman Todd wishes to be remembered to his friends, and would like to hear from them. His address is No. 489, 927, 32nd Battalion, C.E.F., Whitley Military Camps, G. Lines, near Godalming, Surrey, England.

Good Time To Buy Furs

Custom has made Christmas week a great fur buying occasion. The merchants provide liberal stocks and frequently offer unusually attractive prices.

But furs are something that must be bought with caution. There is plenty of room for deception—for the foisting off of cheap skins under high sounding names.

The buyer should patronize the store of sound repute where a guarantee is certain.

And the guide to such stores will be found in the advertising in The Telegraph and Times.
