Fables On Health

HOW TO LIVE LONG
IN ANYTOWN, as elsewhere, the "old-timers" were always talking about the best methods for attaining longevity.
 Almost invariably different methods seemed to lead to the same end.
 One would say that he had never stopped smoking and drank liquor whenever he could get it; another would insist that old age was to be obtained only by complete abstinence from wine and vegetables and other sinners.
 The crux of which is few persons seem to realize is that the attainment of longevity is a matter of degree, and that the best method is the one that is most suitable to the individual.
 But there are general rules to be followed, by following which no one can go wrong.
 To reach a ripe old age is all but impossible if you live a rushing, hectic life. Cultivate cheerfulness and bright outlook; do something useful as often as you can for the good of your peace of mind and soul.
 Get a hobby; don't worry about tomorrow, since things are better; keep your mind occupied and vary your interest so that they will not lag. Eat the things that agree with you best, rather than those things you like, and get lots of fresh air, exercise, bath, sleep and sunshine.
BLANKET ROSES
 New sport coats in Navajo blanket designs will be quite the thing for the younger set. They are done in woollen or characteristic Indian colorings and are lined with flannel.

Adventures of the Twins

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON
 THE BANJO CLOCK

When the Twins and the clock fairy, who go next, Tick Toek? Are there any more clocks to mend?"

LITTLE JOE DAD LOVES TO HELP AROUND THE HOUSE AFTER THE WORKS DONE

"Any more?" cried the clock fairy merrily. "Well I should say so—millions and millions. Only we won't be able to get to all of them tonight. Only a few, I fear. I thought we would go to visit the old banjo clock next."

FLAPPER FANNY

"No," said Tick Toek. "But it looks like a banjo, except that the lower end is bigger than the end of a banjo. But come on, we are losing time."

"Neither did anyone else before the Revolutionary War," said the banjo clock. "I and my brothers came in with the constitution of the United States. If you don't know what that means, either wait until you study history in school or ask somebody."

"I'm sure I don't know what you mean," said Nick.

"Well then, I'll tell you," said the banjo clock. "America isn't so very old—not so old as other countries go. Some other countries are thousands of years old, but two hundred years ago there weren't enough people in America to fill one of our new football fields. So you see it isn't such an old country after all, for all it is so big and important now."

"What has that got to do with clocks?" asked Nick.

"That has that got to do with clocks?" asked Nick.

"Yes," cried the Twins. "Please tell us."

She Was Weak, Thin and Nervous

One of the greatest strength givers and producers of good healthy flesh in the world is God Liver Extract—it's full of vitamins.
 Thank goodness! that now, when a woman is weak and haggard and doesn't weigh what she ought to, she knows where to go for help as all druggists are now selling McCoy's God Liver Extract Tablets, sugar coated, and so easy to take as candy.
 And it's a mighty good thing for skinny, run-down men and women to know that they can get the real God Liver vitamins in condensed form, that they can easily carry with them wherever they travel.
 Men and women, weak, thin and nervous, are urged to put on weight and get back their health and strength with these wonderful tablets.
 One woman gained 18 pounds in five weeks and that's going fast enough for anyone.
 Only 60 cents for 60 tablets, and if they don't put on five pounds of flesh on any thin person in 30 days—why, money back and no quibbling about it, either.
 But be sure and get McCoy's, the original and genuine. At Wascana two stores, Ross Drug Co., Wm. Hawker & Sons and druggists everywhere are selling lots of them.

N.S.W. Cabinet Would Ban Death Penalty

SYDNEY, New South Wales, Sept. 10.—A bill to abolish the death penalty for crime has been completed by the State Cabinet, and will be presented to the next legislative meeting for approval.
 The bill provides for imprisonment instead of hanging, the sentence varying in severity according to the circumstances of the murder committed.

COLORED SILK DRESSES

Silk dresses in printed patterns of the brightest colors in dazzling combinations are still very much in vogue at the New York summer resorts. Everything in every conceivable design is worn, from graduated polka dots in three and four colors to modernistic designs and scattered flowers on irregular striped backgrounds.

Fashion Fancies

By Marie Belmont

TURQUOISE blue has been revived, after a long period when we scarcely saw it at all. The sketch above shows one of the modish shawl wraps, developed in this smart color, which happens to be especially attractive for evening wear.
 This shawl is made of a single layer of pongee and trimmed with a gold embroidered all over in a scroll design worked in gold thread.
