THE NEW HATS AT M. R. A., LTD., TODAY

Striking Exposition of the Spring Millinery Modes.

The assemblage of new millinery modes displayed primarily today in the M. R. A., Ltd., millinery salon revealed many strikingly new style notes and was viewed by numbers of fashionable women from St. John and neighboring places.

On seeing these hats one would notice that the revival of the lavish use of flowers of various kinds and colors seems making a resolute bid for favor. Ribbons and fine fabrics play more than their usual part in the creation of brims and crowns; Milan straw is emphasized too—and nets and laces show to fine advantage.

Hats for spring, it seems, may be either large or small and a wide diversity of shapes is noticed. A tendency toward uneven brims is evident; they may run into points at each side, or have one side wider than the other; they may be slit or turned up off the face in front, or sharply at the side. In contrast, perfectly round shapes with brims rolled slightly upward are showing. Tricornees and toques are still in high favor.

Conspicuous among the model hats shown for the first time today was: A small cherry red turban (copy of a "Reboux" model). For decoration this had red match sticks encircling a bandeau of ribbon roses and extending entirely around hat. A jaunty pin carelessly arranged in front gave a smart appearance immediately recognized.

A "Francoise" hat, also in turban shape, was fashioned from champagne baronette satin. Velvet and silk roses shading from pale amber to darkest brown covered the back of hat and down over the brim at side back.

A "Schwalbe" model in all black stood out from among the others with a quiet distinction. It was a Napoleon shape fashioned from fancy viscose straw. The turned up brim in front was studded with nail-head and cut jet beads, its only other decoration was a gariture of blot feathers.

Other hats in this comprehensive and ultra-fashionable display were of equal importance. There seemed enough to suit every type of face and every change

RECENT DEATHS

Miss Mary R. Bettie, of 48 Exmouth street, a well known and life-long resident of this city, died last evening after a short illness. Miss Bettie had been a member from childhood of the old Brussels street Baptist church and when it amalgamated with the Leinster street church she became a member of the latter. She was born in this city, the daughter of Stephen T. and the late Anne Bettie. She is survived by her father, three sisters and three brothers. The sisters are the Misses Ida and Edna and Mrs. L. Neil, all of St. John. The brothers are Harry and Frank of St. John and Fred J. Bettie of Washington, D. C. The funeral will take place on Wednesday afternoon from her late residence, with service at 2.30.

Mrs. Eliza Jane Toombs.

The death of Mrs. Eliza Jane Toombs, widow of Benjamin Toombs, occurred on Sunday morning at her home in Moncton, at the age of 80 years. She is survived by three sons and five daughters. The sons are James E. and John B. of Moncton, and Dr. Benjamin B. of Winnipeg. The daughters are Mrs. A. F. Colwell and Mrs. G. F. Crossdale, living in the United States; Mrs. W. E. Coombs of Moncton; Mrs. F. T. Coombs, of St. John, and Miss Minnie, at home.

CHILDREN'S TEETH need protection from decay

Let the children have Minty's Tooth Paste! They like its taste and refreshing after-effect—they need no coaxing to clean their teeth with Minty's.

It assures the protection from decay that children's teeth need. It positively destroys the decay germs where the tooth brush cannot reach.

Minty's removes the discolored coating without the danger of scratching the most delicate enamel, because it does not contain any coarse scouring matter.

Minty's is the most economical tooth paste you can buy for the children because it is highly concentrated—there is no need to use more than half-an-inch—and the large tube is sold by all druggists for 25c.

Minty's does more to preserve and whiten the teeth than higher-priced tooth pastes because it contains only ingredients approved by the foremost dentists.

WHY ARE WOMEN ALWAYS USING POWDER PUFFS?

Most face powders come off before they have been on ten minutes. This is why women are always using powder puffs. MINTY'S MA CHERIE Face Powder is so fine in texture, so adherent, that it stays on until you wash it off. It is delicately perfumed with MA CHERIE perfume. Most good toilet goods counters carry a full assortment of MA CHERIE toilet preparations. If your's doesn't—write us.
