MARTY DUPREE AT THE QUEEN SQUARE

Marty Dupree with her company of clever entertainers still maintain the excellent standard of clean and clever entertainment in their new offering "Razle Dazle." The bill is full of good singing, dancing, comedy and musical specialties. Some of the outstanding features of the show last evening were: Edna DeSaules, in a hard shoe dance; Bonnie Drolan and Frank O'Neill, in a piano specialty; Allie Bayley, in "Say It With Liqueur"; Cliff Blanchard, in "Lucy." Particular mention must be given Messrs. Smith and Drohan in their mind reading specialty, which called for rounds of applause. The versatile Marty Dupree, as usual, pleased the audience with her singing and dancing.
Next week is farwell week for this company and Miss Dupree still has a few surprises for the patrons of the Queen Square Theatre.

once established, yet they do not have the necessary funds to take the initial step. In addition to the tangible asset of cash there are other assets necessary to a man's progress, and these he can develop if he will, for they depend upon his ambition and his energy—and no man should lack these.

Banks, both national and state, trust companies, insurance companies, and in fact, all institutions that must necessarily have full confidence of the public in order to thrive, must invest their capital in sound, substantial securities which must have the approval of state or federal authorities. So should a man have sterling qualities which must receive the unqualified endorsement of his fellow men before he can become successful.

It is said that character is the poor man's capital; and it is indeed the backbone of success, for without it no man can win support.
To make sure of the strength of a chain we must give attention to its weakest link; likewise human character depends upon the strengthening of the weakest element which goes to make up character. The principal elements of human character—or capital—are: Confidence, ability, interest, personality, tact, action, loyalty.—W. E. Cundy, in Forbes Magazine (N. Y.)

A New Idea In Chesterfields

Picture first a symphony of forest-hued foliage and blues on enduring Cretone. Cushioned wing backs and springy arm rests also on both fireside chairs. Full web inside framing with coil springs and hair and moss filling to give greater comfort still. Then think of three frontal tiers of tuft upholstery curved into a Cupid's Bow. Think of all this in a $825 suite.

Of course we have them as low as half this, but we feel you would really like to come to see
