RING

Jackson Defeats Fitzsimmons.
Willie Jackson, of New York, knocked out Eddie Fitzsimmons in the tenth round of what was to have been a fifteen round bout at Madison Square Garden, New York last night.

Called It Off.
Baltimore, Oct. 30.—A fight scheduled to take place here last night between Denny Leonard lightweight champion, and Harlem Eddie Kelly, was declared off. The reason given was that there was not sufficient money in the house to pay both men what they wanted. Leonard was satisfied as he got $2,000 of the receipts in the box office and bond which the promoters had to put up with the state boxing commission, guaranteeing him $2,000 more.

ATHLETIC

Establish New Records.
Three records were established in Toronto yesterday afternoon at the Canadian Inter-collegiate Athletic Union meet. Meredith of Manitoba University, threw the discus 119 feet, 6 inches. The 120 yards hurdles record was lowered from seventeen seconds to 16.2-3 by Farthing of McGill. Leigh of Toronto University clipped three and four-fifths seconds from the three mile run. McGill won the duel contest for total points, scoring sixty-two to Varsity's fifty-five.

R. and Vassie's. H. R. McLean, secretary of the Commercial Club, will roll the first ball.

HOCKEY.

Talk of Forming League.
Sydney Post, Amherst, New Glasgow, Moncton and Charlottetown are willing to form a hockey league and disregard the rulings of the M. B. A. A. U. C. Clubs. Last week the teams intend playing their players, but there are certain men on the different teams that cannot be dropped from the game, men for instance like Gregory, Lester, Lott, George Stewart, Jack Twaddle, and others. Last week the writer was in conversation with Stewart and Twaddle. They declared that they had been in communication with prominent sportsmen in the four towns named, as well as Halifax, and that all places were agreeable to adopt the course. Upper Canadian importations would be barred.

FOOTBALL

Fredericton, Oct. 29.—The tie game played at Sackville today in the eastern section of the Intercollegiate Rugby League between Mount Allison and the University of New Brunswick had created a tangled situation as far as league standing is concerned. In the possible event of U. N. B. winning from Acadia here and Acadia defeating Mount Allison at Wolfville it is possible that the game at Sackville would be declared no game and ordered replayed. The rules of the league as far as the U. N. B. still authorities know contain no provision to meet such a situation and the conference held at Truro left many points in dispute.

Under the rule formerly in effect with regard to touch downs for safety U. N. B. would have won today having touched down once to Mount Allison's twice. The rules of the league as they have been printed, however, make no reference to a touch down counting in a tied or drawn game and it is taken that there has been a return to straight Rugby.

The result of today's game is a disappointment to the red and black followers, who expected a victory. Weather conditions were against good back play. Preparations now will be made for the match here next Wednesday against Acadia.

THE BOY CHIEF WONDER

London, Oct. 30.—After a sojourn of three months in this country, during which time he gave convincing exhibitions of his extraordinary skill, Samuel Raschewski the nine-year-old Polish chess expert, is on his way to the United States having sailed for New York on the Olympic. Accompanying the prodigy were his parents and his manager. While in England he met with quite as much success as on the continent, and of fifty-four games played by him in three exhibitions he lost only one, winning forty-three and drawing ten. The little fellow was in great glee when he romped aboard the giant liner for his first trip across the ocean.

WHITE SOX ARE SEEKING MINORS

Offer Big Sums for Baltimore and St. Paul Stars.

New York, Oct. 30.—The New York Globe recently, said:—

"According to reports from Chicago, President Charles A. Comiskey of the White Sox has declined all offers of help from friendly magnates and is undertaking to rebuild his shattered team with material plucked from the minors. To this end he has offered approximately $50,000 for three members of the Baltimore Orioles and $30,000 for two of the outstanding stars of the St. Paul club of the American Association. The Baltimore players sought are Jack Bentley, who alternates between first base and the pitching mound; Bill Holden, an outfielder, who once was with Toronto; and Boley, a shortstop. Of the St. Paul champions he covets Catcher Hargrave former Chicago Cub, and Outfielder Elmer Miller, ex-Kitty.

Neither Baltimore nor St. Paul is at all anxious to part with their stars. There was a time, in the not far distant past, when Jack Dunn, the Oriole manager, depended upon the sale of his players to make both ends meet. He sold 'em as fast as he developed 'em and some of them cost his purchasers large sums of coin.

Now, however, Dunn is drawing his profits through the sale of the minor leagues enjoyed a tremendously prosperous season this year, and most of their best players have been sold to him. One Texas League club is supposed to have cleaned up more than $50,000, and such clubs as the Portland, Baltimore and St. Paul, fared even better.

This despite the fact that many of them palmed off players who were not worth their own weight in gold. Some of Jack Dunn's players drew down $800 a month, and ruined minor league clubs. He is also a stockholder in the Baltimore club, it is said to have received more than $25,000 for his work, exclusive of his cut in the post-season series with St. Paul.

Dunn Asks $100,000 for Trio.
Many of the stronger minor league clubs are now so well fixed financially that they cannot be induced to sell their star players. Only those players who are sent to them under optional agreements can be brought back from them except at prohibitive prices. Dunn, for instance, is said to have set a price of $100,000 on three of his performers and will not break the "lot."

Nor are the players anxious to be sold. They are commanding better salaries in their present minor league berths than they could hope to receive as major league rookies, and in many instances would fight against being transferred.

If the draft were still in force they could be "kicked upstairs" and made to like it, but the draft was abolished when the minors abrogated the National Agreement a couple of years ago, and started off "on their own."

It's a peculiar condition, and one which is almost without a precedent in all the long and somewhat checkered annals of the game. But there it is and there too, Comiskey, waving large sums of money in the air, and apparently unable to win so much as a polite sneer from minor league magnates.

FOUR PUT TO BED BY 2 HOODUP MEN

Woman Interrupts Robbery
and Pursuit of Bandits Follows in Crowded Broadway

—$50,000 Jewelry Missing—

Something new in the hoodup line was tried recently in New York and the result was a revolver chase through Forty-second street into Times square ending in the arrest of one of the alleged robbers. Two burglars entered a room in which four young men were dressing for lunch, made them get into bed and then calmly proceeded to pack up their victim's belongings in two suitcases.

A chance visit of the landlady startled the thieves on their flight. Peter McCuskey, William Kennedy and Michael Lyons were in their room at 678 Eighth Avenue when there came a knock at the door. In response to a shouted "come in" two men entered, one armed with a revolver, the other with a blackjack. It was about noon.

After ordering the roomers to get into bed the man with the revolver covered them while his companion searched their clothing and packed the contents of the bureau drawers into the suitcases.

While this was going on John McCern, the fourth roomer, entered the room. He was struck over the head with the blackjack and forced to join the others in the bed. Then there came a knock at the door. It was the landlady with a rug. McCern was sent to the door. He opened it quickly, brushed past the surprised woman and

DETECTIVES IN PURSUIT

McCern started toward Forty-third street, and when the two hoodup men ran toward Forty-second street, he doubled back and followed them shouting "Stop thief!" Detectives Peter Rahli and John Maher were at Eighth Avenue and Forty-second street. They followed the pursuit. It led through the crowds that fill Forty-second street to seventh avenue and then through the moving automobile traffic at Broadway. Both detectives had drawn their revolvers.
