RECENT WEDDINGS

A wedding of much interest to friends in St. John was solemnized in Toronto on March 8, when Miss Roberta Douglas was united in marriage to Edward Prusty of that city. Miss Douglas was for some months the director of the after-school of the Y. W. C. A. and while in St. John made many friends who wish her much happiness. Mr. and Mrs. Prusty will make their home in Toronto. In this city on the 10th inst., a pleasant ceremony took place at the home of the officiating clergyman, 55 Victoria street, when Stanley Purdy Carpenter and Mrs. Maude Howell, both of Rochester, were united in marriage by Rev. A. A. Allaby, in the presence of a few intimate friends. The bride looked charming in a gown of blue messaline silk with hat to match. She carried a bridal bouquet of cream roses. The bridegroom's present to the bride was a handsome wrist watch. The happy couple will reside at Rotherham. In St. George, February 16, Rev. Father Holland united in marriage Naomi Mahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Mahan, of St. John, to Edward Mulen. The groom has seen much service in France, being one of the few who left St. John with the heavy artillery in the early days of the war.

RECENT DEATHS

The many friends of Annie F. Belyea, wife of David W. Belyea, will be very much grieved to learn of her death which occurred yesterday at her residence, 70 Elliott Row, at the seventieth years of her age. Mrs. Belyea was well known in the city and her husband, for years has been clerk in the city market. Before taking that position he was in the employ of the Canadian Express Company for about thirty years. The late Mrs. Belyea, besides her husband, leaves three daughters for mourning. They are Mrs. Robert D. Smith, Three Rivers (Que.); Mrs. George W. Magee, Kennebunk (B. C.); and Mrs. Clayton A. Thompson, Springfield (Mass.).

At Jacksonville, Carleton county, Mrs. Mattie B. Estey, wife of W. L. Estey, died, Saturday, aged thirty-three years. One son, her mother, a brother and sister also survive.

A wide circle of friends will learn with regret of the death of Charles A. Macdonald, who passed away yesterday at his home, 17 Padlock street. Mr. Macdonald, who was in his seventieth year, was born in St. John and had been connected with the business life of the city for many years. He is survived by his wife, one son, Gordon S. Macdonald of the local office of the marine and fisheries department and one daughter, Mrs. F. P. Johnston, of this city. A son, Lieutenant Stanley Macdonald was killed in France in 1916. The funeral will be on Saturday afternoon from St. John's Stone Church with service at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Julia A. Williams, widow of Francis Williams, died yesterday afternoon at the Mater Misericordiae home, of which she had been an inmate a number of years. Mrs. Williams survived by three daughters, Mrs. Charles Benoit of Milford (Mass.), Mrs. George Derrington of Natick (Mass.) and Mrs. Joseph Roderick of this city; and one son, Frank Williams of New York. The funeral will be held from the home tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

George Perrie, an aged resident of this city since a short time after the fire of 1877, passed away yesterday at 831 Union street. Mr. Perrie was born in Nova Scotia eighty-six years ago. He is survived by two sons and four daughters, David, of St. John, and Howard, of Ontario; Mrs. William Hannah, of Chelms (Mass.); Mrs. Hattie Perrie, of New Hampshire; Miss Mary and Miss Louisa, both at home.

The death of Mrs. Daniel Murphy occurred at her residence, 18 St. David's street, yesterday. Mrs. Murphy leaves one son, Joseph, of this city, and three daughters, Alice, at home in St. John; Mrs. Mary Macdonald of Newton (Mass.) and Mrs. Sampson of Franklin (Mass.). The funeral will be held on Sunday from her late residence.

The death of Mrs. James B. Holmes, widow of Captain J. B. Holmes, occurred yesterday at her residence, 79 Hazen street, at the age of eighty-five. Mrs. Holmes was left a widow about seven months ago and since then had been in failing health. The funeral will be held on Saturday morning from her late residence.

Word has been received of the death of Edmund Dowling, after a long illness. He was fifty-eight years of age and is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Bina Pugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pugh of Burt's Corner. Mrs. N. H. Lindsay of Fredericton has been with her sister, Mrs. Dowling, for some weeks past.

The death is announced in St. Stephen of Mrs. J. Francis Hayward at her home in Parson, Colchester county, February 28. She was the daughter of the late Hiram Thompson of St. Stephen. She leaves one daughter, one sister and three brothers.

Alger Mawhinney died at his home in Mac's Bay on Saturday, March 6, at the age of thirty years. He leaves his father, Joseph Mawhinney, one brother and two sisters.

John O'Regan died at his home in Burnt Land Brook on Tuesday, after a brief illness at the age of fifty-six years. He came from Ireland several years ago and settled on a farm at Ennisbane. He leaves his wife, two children, one brother and six sisters.

The death of Michael White took place at his home in Eastport, Maine, March 10, at the age of seventy-seven years. He went to Eastport from St. John when a boy and for many years followed steamboating.

Miss Gladys Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thomas, of Warrington, died at the Memorial Hospital, St. Stephen, last evening, at the age of twenty-five years.

The death of Mrs. Emeline Betts took place at her home, 39 George street, Fairville, yesterday, after a brief illness. Besides her husband, Wilfred Betts, she leaves one brother, Rev. B. H. Thomas, chaplain of Dorchester penitentiary, and one nephew, Edwin Thomas, of the local police force.

Mrs. Andrew C. Fisher, daughter of Conductor and Mrs. Wellington of Shelburne, died yesterday morning in Toronto.

Mrs. Lawrence Steeves died at her home in Curryville, March 7, following an illness from pneumonia.

The death of Mrs. W. E. Gunter took place at her home, Manawagonish road, yesterday, in the thirty-fourth year of her age, after a short illness from pneumonia. She was an energetic church worker and took an interest in promoting all charitable and philanthropic work. She leaves her husband, who is vice-president of Murray & Gregory, Limited, three sons, John, Harold and Stewart W., one daughter, Dorothy; one sister, Mrs. E. A. Clark, of Milton, Mass., and two brothers, Frank W. Cappers of Milton and Edgar Cappers of Bristol, Penn.

CONCERT ENJOYED

Aided by local talent, the concert party of the Empress of France last evening gave a very enjoyable programme in the Seamen's Institute under the auspices of the Y. W. P. A. Capt. J. J. Mulcahey, chairman, and announced the fixtures in behalf of the president, Miss Alice Fairweather. Every number was well received and a large gathering was delighted with the entertainment.

The programme was as follows: Orchestra selection, Bohemian Girl, Banquet of France band; solo, Miss Louise Knight; comic selection, James Tucker; solo, For You Alone, Mr. Goffin; trio, Perfect Day (violin cello, piano), Sorrensen, Jones, Goffin; solo, Miss Valde Penton; comic songs, Comic Songs, Messrs. Wilmet and Steveling; comic selection, Mr. Neary; orchestra selection, Empress of France band; solo, Mr. Goffin; God Save the King.
