

STYLES FOR MEN

Comfortable fitting coats, soft rolling fronts, trousers closer and shorter, everything tends towards the slim, trim neat effect. None of the sheet iron fashion-plate look of former times.

It's the age of comfort for men and the prices add to the comfort. Suits at $15 that are marvels of style and quality, which were priced $20 to $27. One or two of a pattern, and being cleared in our winter sale. Others at $10.50, that were $15. Ulsters, half-price, $6.75 to $15.

Unselfish Unto Death.
When Sir Ralph Abercromby was mortally wounded in the Battle of Aboukir he was carried on a litter aboard the Fouquier. To ease his pain a soldier's blanket was placed under his head. He asked what it was. "It's only a soldier's blanket," he was told. "Whose blanket is it?" he persisted, lifting himself up. "Only one of the men's." "I want to know the name of the man whose blanket this is," the dying commander insisted. "It is Duncan Roy's, of the 42d, Sir Ralph," said his attendant at last. "Then see that Duncan Roy gets his blanket this very night," commanded the brave man, who did not forget even in his last agonies the comfort and welfare of his men. Of such unselfish stuff are true soldiers made.

Revolution Spreads.
Cape Haitien, Haiti, Jan. 27.—The revolution in Haiti is spreading all over the north. At Port de Paix and Gonaives, the entire population has risen.

Philip Snowden says: "I do not believe in anything less than the total abstinence of every individual in the community and the total prohibition for the state."

CARDS OF THANKS
Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Wamamaker wish to thank their many friends for kindness and sympathy during their recent sad bereavement.

A BOY

The arrival of a boy at the home of E. Frank MacDonald of the Customs House staff was the cause of the particularly pleasant smile he wore today, and also of many congratulations.

THE ROLLING MILLS

Regarding the report that the contract for supplying refined iron to the I. C. R. during the coming year has been awarded to the Portland Rolling Mills, St. John, Charles McDonald said this morning that while he had not been notified officially he believed that the contract had been awarded. The work involved would give steady employment to a large number of men throughout the year.

SPOKE IN CARLETON CHURCH

Rev. R. Heine, Ph. D., traveling agent for the Baptist Foreign Bible Society for New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, delivered an interesting address to the Young People's Society in the Ludlow street Baptist church last evening. Miss E. Cochran, president of the society, presided and Miss Gertrude Gates presided at the organ. Rev. Dr. Heine said there were now about 8,000 Russians in the province, and that they were being converted to Christianity. Several had already taken up farming and others were about to do so. He also referred to the Bulgarians, who also were being converted, but must not be antagonized. A vote of thanks was tendered to Dr. Heine and the pastor, Rev. W. R. Robinson, who also spoke, and the service being done by Dr. Heine and the society.
