The Saturnia will take enough coal on here for her return voyage to this port. The Allan liner Virginian, Captain Gambell, from Liverpool, arrived in port this morning at seven thirty o'clock and docked at No. 2 and 3 berths at Sand Point. Most of the passengers were sent forward by special train to the west this morning.

The Virginian will take on about 2,700 tons of coal here, and will not return to this port. This has been found necessary on account of the coal miners' strike on the other side.

The S. S. Manchester Trader, which will sail from here on Thursday or Friday will also coal up here.

NO TRACE OF RELATIVES OF MAXIME GIRAUD

Was Killed in New Hampshire; Believed to Have Relatives Here—L. C. R. Inquiry

Moncton, N. B., March 12.—(Special)—There is still no word as to the whereabouts of the relatives of Maxime Giraud, reported yesterday killed in the New Hampshire woods and believed to have relatives in this part of the province. A telegram received by the chief of police from Woodstock, N. H., this morning again announces the death, but country falls to reveal the identity of the man.

G. Hazen Adair, of Sussex, a commissioner appointed to conduct an inquiry into John W. Gaskin's relations to the intercolonial, with which he was employed, took evidence this morning in the supreme court chambers here. Former Detective Skellington and others testified. Chief Skellington said he was looking into the case at the title of his (Skellington's) dismissal from the I. C. R. in 1904. He never met Giraud personally. He had received information from a man who served a term for theft from the I. C. R. Gaskin that he was represented by counsel and the taking of evidence was suspended for a while to allow him opportunity to secure a lawyer.

MANCHESTER TRADER HAD ROUGH VOYAGE

Steamer Has Large Quantity of Irish Potatoes Aboard

The steamer Manchester Trader arrived in port last evening from Manchester, England, direct, after having experienced a very rough passage of fifteen days. The cargo, which was loaded on shore at twelve, Captain Cabot said that they had encountered severe snowstorms and heavy fog. When about halfway out the coal strike on the other side had effected the steamer's voyage in any way, the captain said that they had left there before the strike occurred, but that even then, they were in emergency in the coal supply, and it had been necessary to leave without taking the amount generally placed on board. The same had been the case with other steamers.

The "Trader" brought out a large sized cargo amounting to which was a shipment of more than 2,000 bags of Irish potatoes, nearly all of which were consigned to firms in Montreal or Toronto. Almost every steamer coming to port from the old country now has a large shipment of potatoes of Irish stock. The steamer is at the government pier.

A WARNING TO TRAIN BOWDIES

The C. P. R. is going to check the antics of drunken men who try to take charge of the trains. Last night Albin B. Foster, who is now a special officer in the railway's employ, came to town on the Boston express. Arthur Duplissier who had been drinking, became profane and disorderly after the train left Fredericton. He was arrested by Mr. Foster and taken to the relief of all the passengers within reach of the man's voice.

The prisoner was arraigned before Magistrate Ritchie this morning, and was fined $8 or two months. Disorderly passengers now know what to expect.
