THE CHAUTAUQUA SEASON OPENS IN ST. JOHN AGAIN

Objectives Described By
Rev. N. S. Reeves, the Superintendent, Who Al-

Opening Bill.

The Swarthmore Chautauqua opened yesterday afternoon. The opening programme consisted of a lecture on personality by Rev. N. S. Reeves, Chautauqua superintendent, and a concert by the Apollo Concert Company.

In the evening the Apollo Concert Company was heard again, and Ralph Bingham spoke. Large audiences were present at both sessions.

Rev. Mr. Reeves prefaced his address with a few remarks on the message of Chautauqua. He said that the members of the company had looked forward with pleasure to their visit to St. John. They were here as co-workers with the audience. Special attention, he said, would be paid to the children.

Chautauqua had three objectives: Recreation, in the broadest sense of the term; education, the drawing out of the latent forces within; and inspiration, the breathing of a different atmosphere. It held a place in the nation with the church, the school, the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A., the Red Cross and similar institutions. It had an ambition that was noble to fulfill a purpose that was worth while. This was the message of Chautauqua.

Personality, Mr. Reeves said, was what made the person. There were three conflicts in all lives. The first one was the conflict of faith and doubt, the substance of things hoped for and the evidence of things not seen. When doubt gained the ascendancy, things went wrong. The first great attribute of personality was faith. Each person should be conscious of his own importance in his world, and of his inherent value. He should have faith in others and faith in God. The president of Argentina had said that the reason this continent had left his own so far behind was because North America was settled by the Pilgrim Fathers in search of God, and South America by Spaniards in search of gold.

The second conflict was between hope and fear. Great personalities in history were guided by vision. "Today," Mr. Reeves said, "is the tomorrow you worried about yesterday, but it didn't happen. Ninety-nine per cent of the time it doesn't happen."

The third conflict was between love and hate. What was necessary was not a hope that things would be better, but a love that would make those things better. There was no speaking of love as a philosophy of life, but love was a person want to help mankind. The great war was fought by a philosophy of hate. The doctrine of Germany was that if you hated a man enough you would want to kill him. If you wanted to kill him badly enough you generally would kill him. This philosophy went out from college and church and state and was wafted from the trenches across no man's land. The Germans sang:

"Hate by water and hate by land,
Hate of the heart and hat of the hand,
Hate of hammer and hate of the crown,
Hate of seventy millions thundering down."

The allied forces when they went out to war did not sing hymns of hate. They sang such songs as "Pack all your troubles in your old kitbag." There was no hate to be found in that song.

In closing he said that Kipling ling had put his finger on the pulse of the world in his poem "If," which he quoted.

After the concert the Apollo players gave another concert which was quite as well received as that of the afternoon. Ralph Bingham, well known humorist, completed the programme of the day with a monologue that kept the audience in roars of laughter. He told several funny stories and related his famous creation of Bill Johnston and his one tune in imitable style. Varying to the serious he played several operatic selections on the violin, accompanied by Mrs. Bingham. He then related several dialect stories, and closed with a side-splitting tale of a "possum hunt in Georgia."

"TIZ" GLADDENS
SORE, TIRED FEET

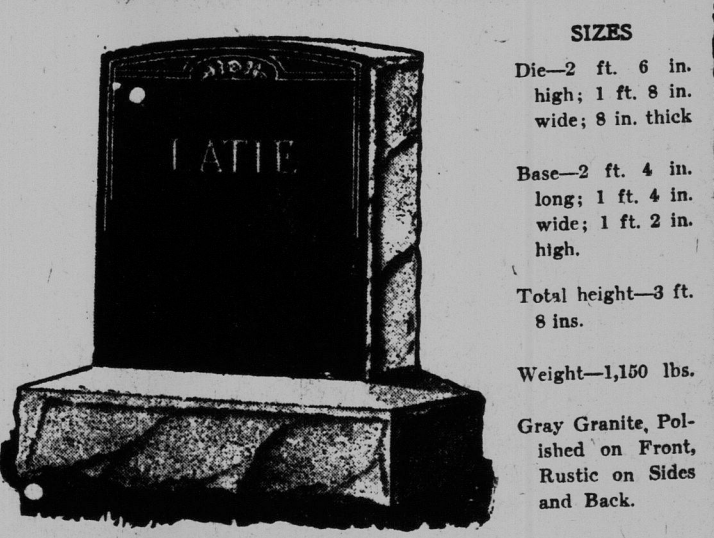

"TIZ" makes sore, burning, tired feet fairly dance with delight. Away go the aches and pains, the corns, callouses, blisters and bunions. "TIZ" draws out the acids and poisons that puff up your feet. "TIZ" is wonderful for tired, aching, swollen, inflamed feet. Your feet just tingle for joy; shoes never hurt or seem tight. Get a box of "TIZ" now from any drugstore or department store. End foot torture forever—wear smaller shoes, keep your feet fresh, sweet and happy.

Watch and $15.

New York, July 11.—A bobbed-hair girl bandit, not more than nineteen years old, held a revolver to the head of Robert Goodman, a taxi driver, while her male companion went through Goodman's pockets and took $15 in cash and a gold watch and chain. The hold-up took place at New York Avenue and Montgomery Street, Brooklyn, just before the couple decided to alight from the taxi.

"Be a good little boy," said the girl gunman in a cajoling voice. "If you don't keep your hands up I'll have to shoot you."

Then when her accomplice had taken the money and watch she addressed

—Highway and Sewerage
Matters in Lancaster— East
St. John Fire District.

At the July session of the Municipal Council yesterday afternoon a statement was received from the Eastern Trust Company relative to its management of the properties formerly controlled by the County Housing Board. No action was taken on it. The matter will be brought forward at the next quarterly meeting. The report showed a balance on hand on May 31, 1923, of $4,400, $8,000 of which had been sent to the county treasurer.

Warden Thornton presided at the meeting. There was considerable discussion over some Lancaster bills presented by the County Housing Board, members of the parish. The highways board had been for $1,108 for work done in Clumpian street. The sewerage accounts amounted at about $500.

He Sings in His Bath

Hard things have been said and written about the man who sings in his bath.

But let us not be unduly prejudiced by the fact that he is disturbing our morning rest. Let us attempt to enter into his feelings.

Why does he sing in his bath?

Some people say it's because his instinct moves him to clear his lungs of their overnight "hang-over." Stuff and nonsense! He sings out of the pure joy of his heart. He gets up feeling brimful of health and energy, he's glad to be alive, he welcomes the advent of another day of glorious existence, he offers up a song of praise—even though it's only a music-hall song—for having been born into such a wonderful world.

Well, that's something to make a song about, isn't it? You who grumble at his musical efforts—you would make
