A Rumor That Winnipeg Collector of Customs is to be Superannuated.

The Greenway Organ on One of Mr. Chapleau's Recent Speeches.

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 30.—The Swedes of Manitoba have joined in the demand for a broad system of schools They readily accept English as the language, but ask for an hour or two a day for teaching their mother tongue.

It is stated that Col. Scott. collector customs here, is to be superannuated almost immediately and A. W. Ross, M. P., appointed in his place. Scott is vigorously objecting, how-ever, and petitions are being circulat-

A report was current this afternoon that in the event of Justice Killam being promoted to the supreme court bench at Ottawa the vacancy on the Manitoba bench would be filled by the appointment of Hon. Mr. Daly, minister of the interior. The wholesale grocery store of G.

F. and J. Gall was burglarized Saturday night, the safe opened and $90 taken. The thieves overlooked a package in another compartment containing several thousand.

A. M. Burgess, deputy minister of the interior arrived here from the west this morning. Lord Sholto Douglas, son of the Marquis of Queensbury, and his bride, a San Francisco variety actress, spent Sunday here, en route east.

The Tribune says that in his speech on Thursday at St. Jean, a French suburb of Winnipeg, Hon. Mr. Chapleau mildly hinted that if he were in the dominion cabinet it would not be long before the Manitoba school question would be settled. The impression left on the mind of his hearers was that the lieutenant governor con-demned the inaction of the dominion cahinet

Victoria, B. C., Sept. 30.—The tramp steamer Straits of Sunda arrived from Japan this morning. A pilot brought her off the harbor, where city health officer Dr. Duncan made an examination. She carried no passengers. Among the crew was one man suffering from violent diarrhoea and other suspicious symptoms. The ship was ordered to proceed to Wil-liams' Head quarantine for further investigation.

Later-The steamer Straits of Sunda has been released from quarantine The suspicious case proved not to be
