LADIES' DAY.

Retail Millinery Openings Attended by Large Numbers of the Fair Sex.

Last night's drop in temperature and the forbidding aspect of this forenoon's sky had little effect upon hun dreds who were bent on inspecting the headwear for spring and summer

In the elementary course before the Natural History Society, Dr. Melvin will give a talk this (Tuesday) eventous time the Star went to press—a steady stream of ladies wended their way to the several openings. At Mancheswill give a talk this (Tuesday) evening on the Structure and Use of the Microscope, followed by illustrations, in which he will be assisted by other microscopists of the society.

Tonight at St. Philip's church Rev. Prof. C. F. Checlzzli, M. A., will address a large gathering on his interesting and glowing experiences among the structure and Use of the several openings. At Manchester, Robertson, Allison's, Limited, all expressed themselves as highly delighted with what they saw and bought. The showing was made in the silk room, on the second floor of the main building, and with natural light excluded the inspection of hats, etc., went merrily on, and will continue to go on tomorrow.
