

Read Classified Ads
on Page 3.

ST. JOHN STAR.

WEATHER.
Warm with Showers.

VOL. 6, NO. 251.

ST. JOHN, N. B., MONDAY, JULY 9, 1906.

EIGHT PAGES.

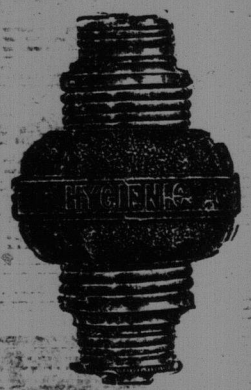

ONE CENT

Yacht Supplies.

Cotton, Manila and Tarred Hemp Rope.
Galvanized and Wood Blocks.
Canvas and Duck.
Copper Paint, Yacht Composite, Aird Felch Bottom Compound.
Anchors and Chains.
Wire Rigging, Rowlocks, Rudder Irons, Oil Clothing, Deck Brushes, Lanterns, Sponges, Etc.
Phonographs; just the thing for a yacht.

W. H. THORNE & CO., Limited
Market Square, St. John, N. B.

Pure Water!

All water for drinking purposes and especially in summer should be filtered. The "HYGIENIC" Filter will fit any faucet. Highly nickel plated and filled with quartz and charcoal.
Price .....$5.50.
The Natural Stone Germ Proof Filter filters the water into a stone jar.

No. 1, which filters 5 gallons per day, .....$5.50.
No. 2, which filters 2 gallons per day, .....$6.50.

Emerson & Fisher

25 Germain St., St. John, N. B.

MEN'S SUITS!

Never was a better gathering of Men's Suits shown than is here today. Beautiful values at $8.50 and $10.00.

Special line of Knee Trousers for Boys in strong Tweeds and Serges, 45, 55 to 80c a pair.

American Clothing House,
NEW STORE,
11-15 Charlotte St.

Men's Straw and Linen Hats.

If you want light Summer Headwear in variety, we are in the position to show you something light, neat, and stylish at moderate prices. We Have What You Want

Straw Hats, 25c to $3.50.
Linen Hats, 35c, 50c and 75c.

F. S. THOMAS, Dufferin Block,
Main St., N. E.

ST. JOHN BARCAIN STORE,
38 MILL ST.

Lot of Ladies' Hats, were $2.50 to 3.25, now 50c.
Bathing Suits now 15c.
Regatta Shirts, were $1.20 and $1.50, now 69c.
Men's Suits, were $5.00 to $9.50, now $3.75 to $5.00.
Good line of Men's Pants, were from $1.50 to $2.75, now 85c to $1.25.

Neckties, were 50c, now 10c.
Men's Gloves, were $1.50, now 65c.
Ladies' Silk Gloves, were 15c, now 10c.
Men's White Shirts, were 75c, now 45c.
Thread, was 5c, now 3 for 5c.
A lot of Raincoats to be sold at very low prices.

Don't forget the place, 38 Mill St

Our Suits

SELL AT SIGHT.

You're doing your pocket book an injustice if you are buying clothing without looking at our stock and prices. You do not need to be much of a Judge to see that you can save money by buying suits here, and we guarantee every garment we sell, and we are selling very many more suits every season.

SEE OUR MEN'S SUITS AT

$3.95, $5, $6, $7, $8.75, $10 and $12
J. N. HARVEY, Clothing and Furnishings,
199 to 207 Union St.

EVERY CHANCE FOR PLEASURE, BUT NO ROOM FOR RELIGION.

Restaurants in Full Swing at Seaside Park but the Salvation Army Was Refused Permission to Conduct a Meeting.

The Salvation Army has since its organization put up with a great deal of inconvenience, but the officers and soldiers have always been allowed the privilege of holding services on the city street corners. In Rockwood Park, at the Blue Rock bathing resort on the Bay Shore, and in other prominent places, they met a reverse yesterday afternoon when the little group of soul savers with drums and banner arrived at Seaside Park.

The fruit stands, beer and cigar stands were doing a thriving business and thousands of visitors were enjoying the cool breezes from the bay. The captain of the army corps asked permission of the police officer in charge of the shore section of the grounds, to hold service there, but she was refused.

There was only one place near and that was on the beach, and while the flyers rolled up on the rocks the little band strained their lungs so that the hundreds of persons on the beach could hear their words above the noise of the sea.

The lady captain in charge took the refusal good naturedly and for an hour conducted a fairly successful meeting on the shore and had the sympathy of many of those who saw the affair.

Col. H. McLean when asked if it was the policy of the railway company not to allow the Army to conduct services on the park grounds, said that he had never heard of this affair, and when told that the Salvationists had been prevented yesterday afternoon, said he had not been informed of it. He spoke as though the park management would have no objection to the Army holding service.

The lady captain in charge took the refusal good naturedly and for an hour conducted a fairly successful meeting on the shore and had the sympathy of many of those who saw the affair.

Col. H. McLean when asked if it was the policy of the railway company not to allow the Army to conduct services on the park grounds, said that he had never heard of this affair, and when told that the Salvationists had been prevented yesterday afternoon, said he had not been informed of it. He spoke as though the park management would have no objection to the Army holding service.

The lady captain in charge took the refusal good naturedly and for an hour conducted a fairly successful meeting on the shore and had the sympathy of many of those who saw the affair.

Col. H. McLean when asked if it was the policy of the railway company not to allow the Army to conduct services on the park grounds, said that he had never heard of this affair, and when told that the Salvationists had been prevented yesterday afternoon, said he had not been informed of it. He spoke as though the park management would have no objection to the Army holding service.

The lady captain in charge took the refusal good naturedly and for an hour conducted a fairly successful meeting on the shore and had the sympathy of many of those who saw the affair.

Col. H. McLean when asked if it was the policy of the railway company not to allow the Army to conduct services on the park grounds, said that he had never heard of this affair, and when told that the Salvationists had been prevented yesterday afternoon, said he had not been informed of it. He spoke as though the park management would have no objection to the Army holding service.

The lady captain in charge took the refusal good naturedly and for an hour conducted a fairly successful meeting on the shore and had the sympathy of many of those who saw the affair.

Col. H. McLean when asked if it was the policy of the railway company not to allow the Army to conduct services on the park grounds, said that he had never heard of this affair, and when told that the Salvationists had been prevented yesterday afternoon, said he had not been informed of it. He spoke as though the park management would have no objection to the Army holding service.

The lady captain in charge took the refusal good naturedly and for an hour conducted a fairly successful meeting on the shore and had the sympathy of many of those who saw the affair.

Col. H. McLean when asked if it was the policy of the railway company not to allow the Army to conduct services on the park grounds, said that he had never heard of this affair, and when told that the Salvationists had been prevented yesterday afternoon, said he had not been informed of it. He spoke as though the park management would have no objection to the Army holding service.

The lady captain in charge took the refusal good naturedly and for an hour conducted a fairly successful meeting on the shore and had the sympathy of many of those who saw the affair.

Col. H. McLean when asked if it was the policy of the railway company not to allow the Army to conduct services on the park grounds, said that he had never heard of this affair, and when told that the Salvationists had been prevented yesterday afternoon, said he had not been informed of it. He spoke as though the park management would have no objection to the Army holding service.

The lady captain in charge took the refusal good naturedly and for an hour conducted a fairly successful meeting on the shore and had the sympathy of many of those who saw the affair.

Col. H. McLean when asked if it was the policy of the railway company not to allow the Army to conduct services on the park grounds, said that he had never heard of this affair, and when told that the Salvationists had been prevented yesterday afternoon, said he had not been informed of it. He spoke as though the park management would have no objection to the Army holding service.

The lady captain in charge took the refusal good naturedly and for an hour conducted a fairly successful meeting on the shore and had the sympathy of many of those who saw the affair.

Col. H. McLean when asked if it was the policy of the railway company not to allow the Army to conduct services on the park grounds, said that he had never heard of this affair, and when told that the Salvationists had been prevented yesterday afternoon, said he had not been informed of it. He spoke as though the park management would have no objection to the Army holding service.

The lady captain in charge took the refusal good naturedly and for an hour conducted a fairly successful meeting on the shore and had the sympathy of many of those who saw the affair.

Col. H. McLean when asked if it was the policy of the railway company not to allow the Army to conduct services on the park grounds, said that he had never heard of this affair, and when told that the Salvationists had been prevented yesterday afternoon, said he had not been informed of it. He spoke as though the park management would have no objection to the Army holding service.

COSSACKS AND MOB FIGHT IN THE STREET

Several Persons Were Wounded During the Trouble.

Russian Government Issues to Other Nations Reports on the Bialystok Massacre—Emperor Nicholas on a Holiday.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 9.—Political demonstrations during which the crowds carried red flags and sang revolutionary songs occurred in many places in St. Petersburg yesterday afternoon and night, necessitating the interference of the police and military patrols. Street cars were held up and the crowds were compelled to uncover and salute the red flags. The most serious affair happened near the railway station, where an officer, later identified as Lieut. Tom, made revolutionary speech to a crowd of 2,000 people. A detachment of police attempted to disperse the assemblage but the people armed themselves with stones dug up from the streets and beat off the police and a squadron of Cossacks. Eventually the Cossacks were reinforced and fired a blank volley in the air, whereupon the rioters fled to neighboring courts. Only a few persons were slightly injured. Lieut. Tom was arrested and taken to the fortress.

A meeting which was addressed by orators from a window of the constitutional Democratic Club was dispersed by mounted gendarmes, during which several persons were wounded with sabres, and a performance at the People's Palace was broken up, the audience singing the "Marseillaise" as they dispersed.

The guards on the mail wagons are now armed with rifles, owing to the increasing numbers of attacks made upon these vehicles. Six more newspapers of this city have been seized.

Landlords from the provinces where agrarian disorders are occurring are flocking into Moscow and St. Petersburg, appealing for troops to protect their property. While he was waiting for the other stage to come up, the robber shot the lock off the Wells Fargo box and rifled its contents. The bandit stopped the other stages in the same way, lining the passengers up and keeping them covered with his pistol.

When all the passengers, 45 in number were lined up, the bandit, with a show of gaiety, selected a young and pretty girl as his first assistant, and told her she was appointed collector.

She hesitated a moment and then went about the work. The girl did not come up to the robber's requirements and he told her she was a poor highwayman, ordering her to get into line and appointed a man to take her place, requiring him to search the passengers.

An English woman and her daughter were in the party and when the robber approached her she dropped in the road in a dead faint. He only laughed as he searched her.

When all the passengers, 45 in number were lined up, the bandit, with a show of gaiety, selected a young and pretty girl as his first assistant, and told her she was appointed collector.

She hesitated a moment and then went about the work. The girl did not come up to the robber's requirements and he told her she was a poor highwayman, ordering her to get into line and appointed a man to take her place, requiring him to search the passengers.

An English woman and her daughter were in the party and when the robber approached her she dropped in the road in a dead faint. He only laughed as he searched her.

When all the passengers, 45 in number were lined up, the bandit, with a show of gaiety, selected a young and pretty girl as his first assistant, and told her she was appointed collector.

She hesitated a moment and then went about the work. The girl did not come up to the robber's requirements and he told her she was a poor highwayman, ordering her to get into line and appointed a man to take her place, requiring him to search the passengers.

An English woman and her daughter were in the party and when the robber approached her she dropped in the road in a dead faint. He only laughed as he searched her.

When all the passengers, 45 in number were lined up, the bandit, with a show of gaiety, selected a young and pretty girl as his first assistant, and told her she was appointed collector.

She hesitated a moment and then went about the work. The girl did not come up to the robber's requirements and he told her she was a poor highwayman, ordering her to get into line and appointed a man to take her place, requiring him to search the passengers.

An English woman and her daughter were in the party and when the robber approached her she dropped in the road in a dead faint. He only laughed as he searched her.

When all the passengers, 45 in number were lined up, the bandit, with a show of gaiety, selected a young and pretty girl as his first assistant, and told her she was appointed collector.

She hesitated a moment and then went about the work. The girl did not come up to the robber's requirements and he told her she was a poor highwayman, ordering her to get into line and appointed a man to take her place, requiring him to search the passengers.

An English woman and her daughter were in the party and when the robber approached her she dropped in the road in a dead faint. He only laughed as he searched her.

When all the passengers, 45 in number were lined up, the bandit, with a show of gaiety, selected a young and pretty girl as his first assistant, and told her she was appointed collector.

She hesitated a moment and then went about the work. The girl did not come up to the robber's requirements and he told her she was a poor highwayman, ordering her to get into line and appointed a man to take her place, requiring him to search the passengers.

An English woman and her daughter were in the party and when the robber approached her she dropped in the road in a dead faint. He only laughed as he searched her.

When all the passengers, 45 in number were lined up, the bandit, with a show of gaiety, selected a young and pretty girl as his first assistant, and told her she was appointed collector.

She hesitated a moment and then went about the work. The girl did not come up to the robber's requirements and he told her she was a poor highwayman, ordering her to get into line and appointed a man to take her place, requiring him to search the passengers.

WOULD REVOLUTIONIZE THE WORK AT SAND POINT.

The C. P. R. Proposition Which is to be Considered Today Involves Great Changes—The Railway Will Construct a New Deep Water Berth.

A LONE HIGHWAYMAN
HELD UP FORTY FIVE
Made a Lady Passenger Assist In Securing the Booty.

Big Crowd of Passengers Detained and Robbed by One Man—The Bandit Has Been Captured.

FRESNO, Calif., July 9.—A despatch to the Republican from Berenda announces that the highwayman who held up five stages near Awahnee Saturday night has been captured. The name of the bandit or bandits of the capture could not be ascertained.

The first authentic information was received here last night, when J. F. Tibbitt of Riverside, with his wife and Miss Amy Michelbacher came out of the valley.

The robbery occurred six miles from the stopping place at Awahnee on the other side. At that place the road winds around the side of a hill and comes to a sudden point. The robber stepped out and ordered W. A. Palmer, the driver of the stage, to stop. The latter quickly complied.

The highwayman wore a black mask and had sacks tied about his waist. He held a pistol in his right hand and a rifle in his left. He ordered passengers to alight, all quickly got out of the stage and lined up on the road, with their hands above their heads. H. E. Elliott from Hornolis was ordered to take the express box from the stage. While he was waiting for the other stage to come up, the robber shot the lock off the Wells Fargo box and rifled its contents.

The bandit stopped the other stages in the same way, lining the passengers up and keeping them covered with his pistol.

When all the passengers, 45 in number were lined up, the bandit, with a show of gaiety, selected a young and pretty girl as his first assistant, and told her she was appointed collector.

She hesitated a moment and then went about the work. The girl did not come up to the robber's requirements and he told her she was a poor highwayman, ordering her to get into line and appointed a man to take her place, requiring him to search the passengers.

An English woman and her daughter were in the party and when the robber approached her she dropped in the road in a dead faint. He only laughed as he searched her.

When all the passengers, 45 in number were lined up, the bandit, with a show of gaiety, selected a young and pretty girl as his first assistant, and told her she was appointed collector.

She hesitated a moment and then went about the work. The girl did not come up to the robber's requirements and he told her she was a poor highwayman, ordering her to get into line and appointed a man to take her place, requiring him to search the passengers.

An English woman and her daughter were in the party and when the robber approached her she dropped in the road in a dead faint. He only laughed as he searched her.

When all the passengers, 45 in number were lined up, the bandit, with a show of gaiety, selected a young and pretty girl as his first assistant, and told her she was appointed collector.

She hesitated a moment and then went about the work. The girl did not come up to the robber's requirements and he told her she was a poor highwayman, ordering her to get into line and appointed a man to take her place, requiring him to search the passengers.

An English woman and her daughter were in the party and when the robber approached her she dropped in the road in a dead faint. He only laughed as he searched her.

When all the passengers, 45 in number were lined up, the bandit, with a show of gaiety, selected a young and pretty girl as his first assistant, and told her she was appointed collector.

She hesitated a moment and then went about the work. The girl did not come up to the robber's requirements and he told her she was a poor highwayman, ordering her to get into line and appointed a man to take her place, requiring him to search the passengers.

An English woman and her daughter were in the party and when the robber approached her she dropped in the road in a dead faint. He only laughed as he searched her.

When all the passengers, 45 in number were lined up, the bandit, with a show of gaiety, selected a young and pretty girl as his first assistant, and told her she was appointed collector.

She hesitated a moment and then went about the work. The girl did not come up to the robber's requirements and he told her she was a poor highwayman, ordering her to get into line and appointed a man to take her place, requiring him to search the passengers.

An English woman and her daughter were in the party and when the robber approached her she dropped in the road in a dead faint. He only laughed as he searched her.

When all the passengers, 45 in number were lined up, the bandit, with a show of gaiety, selected a young and pretty girl as his first assistant, and told her she was appointed collector.

She hesitated a moment and then went about the work. The girl did not come up to the robber's requirements and he told her she was a poor highwayman, ordering her to get into line and appointed a man to take her place, requiring him to search the passengers.

An English woman and her daughter were in the party and when the robber approached her she dropped in the road in a dead faint. He only laughed as he searched her.

When all the passengers, 45 in number were lined up, the bandit, with a show of gaiety, selected a young and pretty girl as his first assistant, and told her she was appointed collector.

She hesitated a moment and then went about the work. The girl did not come up to the robber's requirements and he told her she was a poor highwayman, ordering her to get into line and appointed a man to take her place, requiring him to search the passengers.

An English woman and her daughter were in the party and when the robber approached her she dropped in the road in a dead faint. He only laughed as he searched her.