A WARM COAT FOR THE LITTLE MAID.

4076—Some very quaint little coats are shown among the new models and one which is both attractive and warm is pictured. A golden-brown broad-cloth was used as material and velvet of a darker shade formed collar and cuffs. A coat of this style is the best for home construction and for that reason is given here. A yoke which may be finished without the collar if preferred, closes in double-breasted fashion to the throat. To this is attached the skirt portion which has buttons in front and back. The cuffs are trim and smart and should be trimmed with buttons as suggested in the drawing. Any of the seasonable, neat materials may be used here. 1 1/2 yards 54-inches wide being needed for the medium size. 4076—Sizes, 1 to 8 years.

REBUILDING 'FRISCO.

Labor Conditions Getting Down to a Normal Basis, Though Certain Classes of Help are Scarce.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 4.—The labor situation in San Francisco is rapidly assuming normal conditions. There is still a demand for ordinary laborers, especially for railroad construction. Hold carriers are badly needed here, as are cement workers, lathers and plasterers. Construction work is now going on in fifty steel and frame buildings ranging from 5 to 16 stories in height within six blocks of Union square, which was the centre of the retail district and of the fire. The demand for clerical and office work is constant and increasing, as is also that for household help.

AGREED TO BE REUNITED

King Edward's Influence Brought About a Settlement of Their Differences.

Marlboroughs Have NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—According to a despatch to the Herald from London, the Throne says: "A reconciliation has taken place between the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough and on Boxing Day (the day after Xmas) they came together again. King Edward has extended the area of his influence and his function has been chiefly instrumental in ending the re-union. There were faults on both sides, but the sins of omission and commission have been mutually forgiven." A despatch to the Herald from Newport, R. I., says: "Though few acquaintances of the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough who are still here have heard anything definite regarding their reconciliation, they say they have reason to believe the rumor is well founded."

NEW OPERATING ROOM TO COST $15,000

Hospital Commissioners Will Consider Plans Today—The Owen Jones Bequest to be Used

The regular monthly meeting of the Hospital Commissioners will be held this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, when the chief matter to be discussed will be the installation of a new operating room to cost in the vicinity of $15,000. The greater part of that amount is to come from the Owen Jones fund. The proposed room will be up-to-date in every respect. Extensive repairs have recently been made to the building. It is intended that the new operating room shall be placed in the north end of the new story recently erected, and opposite the children's ward. F. Neil Brodie, the architect, says the location is excellent and when finished the new room will be a great addition to the building.
