WOODSTOCK, N. B., Aug. 8.—The largest and most representative convention in the history of Liberalism in Carleton county was held this afternoon in the new Hayden Gibson Theatre. President James A. Barter, of the County Liberal Association, in the chair. Every parish was represented. In fact, even every school district sent someone. As generally expected, the federal nomination was unanimously secured by Mr. Carvell, K.C., who accepted in a speech of an hour's duration.

Sharp at three o'clock President Barter called the meeting to order and in a brief speech stated that the convention had been called for the purpose of nominating a candidate. No special delegates had been chosen and if the convention saw fit, those present from each parish might choose delegates to represent them on a nominating committee. As to the procedure he would leave that to the convention to determine.

J. Judson Hall, of Grafton, seconded by J. W. Smalley, of New Brunswick, a nominating committee be chosen. In amendment Squire Joseph Merriworth of McKenna, N. B., moved for an open convention. This was seconded by half a dozen, and unanimously carried.

After a short recess a most interesting speech was delivered by the name of Frank Broadstreet Carvell, K.C., who outlined the present representative in the highest terms.

Mr. Carvell of Hartland seconded the nomination. No other name being placed in the running, on motion of Hon. W. P. Jones, K.C., the nomination was closed.

SPRING TO THEIR FEET. A standing vote was called for on the name of Mr. Carvell and with a cheer that reverberated again and again, the whole gathering sprang to their feet as one man. The result of the declaration of the chairman conferring the nomination upon Mr. Carvell was that the Malters' Union, and big crowds are coming in on every train for these sessions.

Last night the visitors held the joint smoke talk old Pannell Hall has ever seen, and the historic building resounded with the cheers and jolly songs of men gathered from all ends of the continent in a common cause.

Another important question to be decided was in regard to the adoption of an insurance plan in connection with the union, which movement has strong backing.

SEDITION IN INDIA
LONDON, Aug. 10.—The trial of Mr. Tilaik, the nationalist leader, for publishing seditious articles in the "Pioneer" of which he is editor and proprietor, concluded on Wednesday.

He was found guilty and sentenced to six years' transportation and a fine of a thousand rupees (about $27).

Mr. Justice Dyer, in passing sentence, dwelt on the painful duty of sentencing a man of talent and influence who might have been instrumental for much good. He must have had a diseased and perverted mind to think that such articles constituted legitimate political agitation. The articles, such as sedition, preached violence, spoke approvingly of cowardly and atrocious murders, and hailed the advent of the bomb as something for India's good.

Dondu Kashinath Phadke, editor and proprietor of the "Arundodaya," a daily weekly, who was arrested on a charge of sedition on May 16, was sentenced to fourteen months' imprisonment.

In Calcutta on the same day the chief justice sentenced a printer of the "Dugantar" to three years' rigorous imprisonment for publishing seditious articles inciting to rebellion and murder after being warned. The sentence is to begin when the present term of imprisonment—two and a half years—imposed previously on the accused has expired.

Another printer of the same paper was sentenced to the sessions for a similar offense.

Ten Indians, including some leaders of the community were at Calcutta on Wednesday sentenced to four days' hard labor, having refused the alternative of paying a fine for having without license. The chairman of the Islamic Society gave evidence, declaring that he had decided to suffer with his poorest countrymen, and had harked as a protest.

WARNED HIS HEARERS.
Mr. Carvell warned his hearers that the party will have to see a serious campaign. He took up in detail the Saskatchewan Valley case, the North Atlantic Railway, the timber limits, the Hodgins case and many other alleged cases of graft made by Foster, Ames and others of the opposition, showing how united and grossly misleading were their accusations against the Liberal party. He had never neglected an opportunity to cross swords in debating these matters with the real leaders of the opposition, and would be delighted to accommodate them at any time.

Concerning the valley railway the speaker said he was greatly disappointed that the Transcontinental had gone through the centre of the province, but felt that even his strongest opponents would concede that he (Carvell) had done all that could be done by any single person in the effort. Although disappointed in the valley road he was not discouraged, as he had urged, and was glad to say the government had granted liberal subsidies for a line from Grand Falls to St. John along the river, which he hoped would be being at no very distant date. He urged that every man present get down to good hard work along the line of organization. Mr. Carvell in conclusion regretted the absence of Hon. Dr. Pursey, whom he had greatly desired to have present, but unfortunately the Minister at the last moment had been detained at the capital.

FRASIER MR. CARVELL.
Rev. W. Burton Morgan of Hartland spoke briefly in praise of Mr. Carvell. He had lived a year or more in Ottawa, he had watched Mr. Carvell's career in parliament, and was certain the nomination of the convention was one of the ablest that ever sat in the commons.

Win A. Hayward of Brighton, the ex-secretary of the county, who was dismissed by the present liberal government, came to the platform in response to repeated calls and delivered a fighting speech that provoked the greatest enthusiasm. Hon. W. P. Jones, Harry Carvell, Dr. I. B. Curtis, George W. Malters, Frank Hazenman gave short speeches, all in eulogy of the nominee and most optimistic in tone. In fact, optimism was the prevailing key note of the entire proceedings. George McLeod of Farmington, seconded by Saml. Havens of St. Johnsville, proposed the following resolution, which was strongly supported by several speakers and unanimously carried:

Whereas, the unlawful expenditure of money and the use of liquor in election campaigns have become offenses against decency and public morality, and are contrary to the principles and spirit of the constitution; and

Whereas we deeply deplore the extent to which the agencies of money and liquor have been employed; be it therefore

Resolved, that we the Liberals of the county of Carleton, in convention assembled, do hereby place ourselves on record as favoring future campaigns entirely in conformity with the provisions of the law.

By actual count there were three hundred and sixty-eight delegates present from the parishes. In addition to the representatives from the town. Cheers for the King and candidate closed the proceedings.

CARVELL AGAIN CHOICE OF THE LIBERAL PARTY

Nominated Amid Great Enthusiasm
A FINE CONVENTION
Mr. Carvell Delivers Vigorous Address to His Supporters
