Apohaqui

Apohaqui, Jan. 15.—The aims and anticipated results of the Forward Movement were ably presented by the clergyman in the various churches on Sunday last, it being a day set apart for this worthy subject.

At three o'clock in the afternoon, a large congregation assembled in the Anglican church, where with the rector, Rev. Mansel E. Sheehan, His Lordship Bishop Richardson was present and delivered the sermon which was listened to with rapt attention, not only by the members of the church of Ascension, but also by a strong representation of members from the other Protestant churches of the village. The distinguished dignitary chose his text from the 19th Chapter of the Gospel according to St. Luke, from the 41st verse to the 45th inclusive.

In his preliminary remarks, His Lordship in alluding to the late war, expressed his conviction with the rector, Rev. Mansel E. Sheehan, His Lordship Bishop Richardson was present and delivered the sermon which was listened to with rapt attention, not only by the members of the church of Ascension, but also by a strong representation of members from the other Protestant churches of the village. The distinguished dignitary chose his text from the 19th Chapter of the Gospel according to St. Luke, from the 41st verse to the 45th inclusive.

On Tuesday evening Miss Kathryn Hilly was hostess at a greatly enjoyed bridge and dance. Many of the guests motored out from St. John.
