NOVA SCOTIAN SOLDIER SEEKS
$3,000,000 FARM

Lost in First Part of Action to Recover Valuable Farm Property.

G. W. V. A. TO HELP HIM IN FIGHT

Supreme Court of Nova Scotia is Ready Now to Re-open the Case.

Ottawa, Feb. 28.—Through the efforts of the Dominion Command of the G.W.V.A., D. Stanley MacNeil, a young Canadian Expeditionary Force soldier, now in Edmonton may come into some $3,000,000 worth of property.

Before the war there existed in Montreal a contracting firm of Sparrow & MacNeil. The firm purchased for $2,000 a farm at Island Point, Cape Breton, the MacNeil in the firm being an older brother of D. Stanley MacNeil. Under a family agreement the farm was to come into the possession of D. Stanley MacNeil when he was 21 years of age.

The war came on and the firm of Sparrow & MacNeil became insolvent. The farm having been purchased with firm money was seized by the administrator, F. W. Sharpe, of Montreal. But in the meantime a discovery of from ten to twelve million tons of gypsum had been made on the farm and experts stated that the firm was now worth about two and three quarters millions.

Easy to Mine.

The gypsum was easily mined and close to transportation. The family tried to regain the farm. The case came before the Nova Scotia county court where it was held that it was the property of D. Stanley MacNeil. An appeal by Sharpe was made to the Nova Scotia Supreme Court, which reversed the county court decision, giving the farm to the creditors. The Supreme Court of Canada upheld the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia. However, the G.W.V.A. took the matter up and this morning the Dominion Secretary C. Grant MacNeil—who is no relation of the other MacNeil—was informed that the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia was now prepared to reopen the case.

Favors Women In Political Arena

Montreal, Feb. 28.—Hon. Marcellin Burrell, ex-minister of agriculture and director of the Montreal Women's Club this afternoon on "citizenship" day. He said many men were deterred from entering politics by the candid criticism directed against public men and the vulgarity of politics. He thought the entry of women into the political arena would be a strong driving force in the right direction.

NUXATED IRON
Helps make rich, red blood and revitalizes weak nervesYOU MAY BE A BETTER MAN AT 45, THAN
THE YOUTH OF 25

If you keep your blood rich in iron to give you plenty of "stay there" strength and endurance.

In an account of a severe mountain climbing test, a New York newspaper states that 20 per cent. of those who accomplished the feat were 44 years and over. It is therefore shown that you may be a better man at 46 than the husky strapping of 25 if you take care of yourself and keep your blood filled with iron. Prime fighters, wrestlers and athletes have learned the value of plenty of plain coarse foods in their training as such a diet helps supply their blood with iron. Nature put plenty of iron in the husks of grains and the peels of vegetables to enrich your blood, but modern methods of cooking throw all these things away—hence the alarming increase in recent years in Anemia—iron starvation of the blood, with its degrading weakness, nervousness and other attendant ills. If you are not strong and well, if you lack bodily and mental vigor, do not wait until you go all to pieces and collapse in a state of nervous prostration or until in your weakened condition you contract some serious disease, but take some organic iron like NUXATED IRON at once to help enrich your blood and revitalize your worn-out exhausted nerves. Organic Nuxated Iron is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples. It will not injure the teeth nor disturb the stomach. You can even eat it if you wish. It often increases your bodily and mental vigor in two weeks time. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturer if you do not obtain satisfactory results. Beware of substitutes. Look for the word "Nuxated" on every package and the letters N. I. on every tablet. At all drug stores.

Liquor Case In
The Police Court

Preliminary Hearing on Charge of Theft Against Pelky.

William H. McAndrews pleaded not guilty to having liquor in his possession unlawfully in his beer shop, 20 Fund street, when the case was taken up in the police court yesterday afternoon.

Sub-inspector Samuel Journeay, the first witness called by the prosecution, stated that he searched the shop of the accused at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, accompanied by Inspector Collins. Nothing was found in the shop but on entering the woodshed attached to it he remarked an empty square face lying on a shelf. On investigation he discovered that a board above the bottle was loose, and on prying it open found five bottles of malt whisky, six gin, four Scotch, a bottle of ginger beer and a can of alcohol. On one of the bottles he found an egg cup. It was wet and smelled of gin. The pieces of several gin cases marked John de Kuyper had been broken up and lay about the shed. Witness stated he had searched the premises since it had been accused by the accused, the John de Kuyper but had been unable to find any liquor before.

After the liquor was found the defendant was notified to appear in court.

Questioned by J. B. Dever for the defence, the witness stated that the liquor had been found between the walls of the defendant's woodshed and a house owned by Mr. Sims, now out of repair and vacant. No charge had been preferred against the defendant by the inspector, and he did not know of the police ever having raided his premises. On being more closely questioned by the prosecution the witness said that in his opinion he would say the liquor had been found on the Sims property.

In answer to W. M. Ryan for the prosecution witness said he did not know whether Sims was the owner of the property occupied by McAndrews or not. When he questioned McAndrews as to the liquor the defendant replied that he knew nothing about it. The case was adjourned until this morning at 11 o'clock. The defendant was granted his liberty on a deposit of $200.

Preliminary Hearing

The preliminary hearing of Arthur and Emma Pelky charged with the theft of bedding and clothing from Arthur Adams, Dorchester street was resumed. Detective Biddesscombe stated that after the theft was reported he found the bedding described by the complainant in Gilbert's second hand store on Mill street. The Pelkys were arrested by the Portland, Me., police at the request of the St. John chief, and witness was sent to bring the two back to the city for trial.

He arrived in Portland on Saturday and found the accused under detention. After some hesitation they consented to waive extradition, and accompanied witnesses back to St. John. Mrs. Pelky was wearing a leather coat in Portland similar to that described by Mr. Adams as having been stolen from him, and witness took it from her. On the train she complained of being cold and asked if she might use it as a wrap and was allowed to do so.

Lost a Coat

"During the trip she visited the laundry and was gone for a considerable time. The detective kept an eye on the door and knowing her whereabouts did not molest her. On returning to her seat some time later, she remarked that she had been locked in by the conductor. Witness knew this was not the case. His suspicions having been aroused he interviewed the conductor, who searched the laundry but found nothing. On nearing the city Mrs. Pelky stated she had lost the coat and the detective corroborated her, saying that she had thrown it off the train.

J. Starr then cross-examined witness for the defence and the case was set over until this morning at 11 o'clock.

Other Cases

A case against Captain O. Olsen, of the S.S. Tanja, charged with dumping rubbish in the harbor was allowed to stand till today.

Paquale Fotino, charged with damaging a scale in restaurant owned by Lunde, Bramble, pleaded guilty. The case was adjourned until this morning at 11 o'clock.

MRS. SOLOMON SAYS:
By HELEN ROWLAND
(Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)
Being the Confessions of the Seventh-Hundredth Wife.

My daughter, who is the most dangerous of men! For, to not all the VAMPS wear long earrings, and not all the live-ropes, a permanent wave.

And there are seven deadly varieties of masculine vamps, of which I charge thee, beware!

First, there is the "Devotion." He is so impetuous. He takes thee by surprise. He snatches thee in his arms and kisses thee without warning. He grasps thee to his bosom, with much fervor. He is "overcome" by thy beauty.

But, be not deceived; for he is easily put down. And his exit is tamer than a blue law Sunday. And there is the "Subtle Vamp."

He plays the "distant," and the "reserved." He is a "tease," and a "tease" is always in his eye; the "take-care-of-you-thing" manner is donned each morning with his linen collar.

He LOVES the own acting! He "starlets" himself, continuously. And there is the "Chummy Vamp."

He is the sentimental, and talketh of Platonic Friendship. He teacheth thee to play golf—and to swim—and to fox-trot. He saith "How foolish are the romantics!" But as for me, my motives are altruistic. And mental companionship is all that I desire!

Yes, I charge thee, trust him not, in a dim corner on a moonlight night. For there cometh, always, "a time WHEN—" And there is the "Appealing Vamp."

He "suffereth" from soul sickness and yearneth for sympathy. He telleth thee his "troubles" and sigheth to be consoled. He permitteeth thee to comfort him—and to hold his hand. He calleth upon thee to "mother" him—and to smooth his forehead.

And there is the "Spurious Artist." And talketh in "big figures," and dangleth thee with dreams of yachts and motor-cars, and sables.

Ye longeth to be called a "Spendar," and dangleth to shine in a restaurant. He knoweth the French names of all the dishes. And, to marry, he would have to pawn his dinner-coat.

But the Vamp-of-Vamps is the Romanticist. He doeth the "Prize Charming," and talketh in fairy-tales and in poetry. He maketh thee to see stars. His murmurs of love in a Greenwich Village attic, with kisses for phylloxera, and wine-o'-dreams.

Lo, he is, unto all the others, as champagne unto home-brew! Verily, verily, every masculine vamp hath a "method," and a particular stunt; and that stunt which he hath found to work successfully with one dandel, shall be practised upon every dandel, in turn.

And each woman shall say in her heart, "Lo, I am IT!" And, unless she be wise, she shall "fall for him!" Selah.

For real "honest to goodness" value you will use Red Rose Tea. The same good tea to-day as for over 26 years.

HEARTBURN
LIVER TROUBLE

When the liver becomes torpid and inflamed, it cannot furnish sufficient bile to the bowels, thus causing them to become constipated.

The stomach is also affected. In the case of heartburn there is a gnawing and burning pain in the stomach, attended by disturbed appetite, caused by great acidity. Whenever too much food is taken, it is liable to ferment, and become extremely sour, vomiting often occurs; and what is thrown up, is sour and sometimes bitter.

Other liver trouble symptoms are pain under the right shoulder, yellowness of the skin and eyes, floating specks before the eyes, coated tongue, bad taste in the morning, foul breath, water brash, lamelidie, constipation, etc.

Keep your liver active by using Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills and you will have no heartburn or other liver troubles. Being purely vegetable they do not grip, weaken or sicken like the old-fashioned purgatives generally used.

Mrs. Mary Strong, Glamevin, Sask., writes: "I have used Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills, and they have cleared me of heartburn and liver trouble. I don't think they can be beaten by any other medicine, and I can highly recommend them."
