"SWEETEN YOUR LIFE" "Fruit-a-lives" Cured Him That's What the Doctor Told Him

Chesterville, Ont., Jan. 25th, 1911. "For over twenty years I have been troubled with Kidney Disease, and the doctors told me they could do me no good, and that I would be an sufferer for the rest of my life. I doctored with different medical men and tried many advertised remedies, but none of them suited my case. Nearly a year ago I tried "Fruit-a-lives." I have been using this fruit medicine nearly all the time since, and am glad to say that I am cured. I give "Fruit-a-lives" the credit of doing what the doctors said was impossible. I am now seventy-two years old, and in first class health." GEO. W. BARKLEY. In all the world, there is no other remedy that has cured so many cases of so-called "incurable" kidney disease, as "Fruit-a-lives." This famous fruit medicine acts directly on the kidneys—strengthening them and ridding the system of the waste matter that poisons the blood. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. HOUSE IS TORN DOWN

Thursday, Aug. 1. Sheriff S. S. deForest and four deputies, a writ of possession, and a woman with a revolver figured in stirring proceedings yesterday afternoon on the Loch Lomond road opposite the main entrance to the city's waterworks property. The four deputies were there at the start but only two remained to see the order of the court carried out; the other two departed for town when the gun became one of the properties in the action of the drama. The sheriff and his men had driven out with a writ of possession issued by a supreme court judge, to take over a house occupied by Mrs. May A. Robertson. It was a story dwelling opposite the waterworks entrance. The city's contention was that she had no legal right to residence there, and it was said that mild measures to secure possession by the city had proven unavailing. Mrs. Robertson appeared with a revolver and matron at once became very interesting. It was at this point that two of the deputies were shot. The sheriff reasoned with the woman and matters quieted down somewhat, and the revolver was dropped to the ground. One of the constables picked it up and returned it to her.
