

and that the matter of permissible transfers between categories or items would continue to be dealt with on the basis of consultation and mutual agreement between our two countries.

I should be glad to have your confirmation of these points, and may I suggest that this letter and your reply shall constitute an agreed record of our understandings.

Yours sincerely,

S.S. REISMAN