

"And so they go," one of the late

Portland School Committee it is reported said, "our great men are fast departing—first Greeley, then Chase, and now Sumner—and I don't feel very myself."

A recent critic upon Othello, had the following: "The Moor, being a holocaust of rage and jealousy, smothered her."

"Think off Mr. Bobbs, the United States drink $90,000,000 of the spirits of cash," Mr. Bobbs (costly) said.

"How I wish I was in the United States!"

A sentimental young man, in speaking to his father's coachman of a neighboring family, remarked that "they were happy until sorrow suddenly came and left her traces there." The coachman looked puzzled, but finally responded "they are all right; an' what's she do with the rest of the harness?"

And this is what Henry Ward Beecher said about it in his discourse last night: "I cannot pass over the gigantic magnitude of our Government project, printing and rotting out the foundations of our

The Rev. Wm. Knight, of Dundee, Scotland, who has been considerably talked about since the Presbytery of the Free Church, to which he belonged, proceeded against him for heresy, having applied with his congregation to be admitted into the Established Church.

"quest to be admitted as a minister of "the Church of Scotland. I shall gladly give to the Presbytery of Dundee all information on the points which they may judge it necessary to enquire, and hope to do so to the satisfaction of the Presbytery." The application, with the accompanying document, was referred to the General Assembly.

Secretary; Brother Fenn, P.A.D.C.

Brother J. C. Parkinson Deputy Provincial Grand Master for Middlesex and several others. The lodge having been opened in due form, Prince Arthur was admitted to the ancient rites of Freemasonry, the Prince of Wales performing the usual ceremony. Bro Radford was the tyler of the lodge, and Brother Spaight from the Grand Lodge assisted in the duties. The lodge having been closed, the Prince of Wales, Prince Arthur, the Grand Master, and others sat down to dinner in the banquetting room.

the 1st day of December.

Wild turkey, grouse, pheasants or partridges between the 1st day of September and the first day of January.

Woodcock, between the 1st day of July and the 1st of January.

Saipe, between the 15th day of August and 1st of March.

Canada, grey duck, black duck, wood or summer duck, and all kinds of teal between the 15th day of August and 1st day of January.

Hares or rabbits, between the first day of September and the first day of March.

Except in the Counties of Essex, Lambton and Middlesex, no small game shall be killed for two years after the passing of this Act.

No person shall have in his possession any of the above animals or birds, or any portion of them, during the close seasons. They may be exposed for in possession at any time for family use

But in all cases the proof or the time taken to find the animal or taking shall be upon the party so claiming.

None of the animals or birds above mentioned shall at any time be taken by any means of traps, snares, gins, listed lines or other similar contrivances. Any person who may destroy any such traps, snares, gins, &c., which he may discover without incurring any liability for so doing.

No one shall have in possession the eggs of any of the birds mentioned above.

No one shall be allowed to hunt, trap or set night lines allowed in the killing of snakes, geese or ducks.

Beaver, muskrats, mink, marten, racoon, otter and fisher may be hunted or killed only between the 1st Nov and the 1st of May.

The fine for killing deer and geese, or of reason, shall be fifty dollars for each dollar not more than fifty dollars for each.

any time not less than five dollars nor

For killing any of the fur-bearing animals out of the season, not less than five dollars nor more than twenty-five and a similar fine for any other breach of the Act. In all cases the whole of the fine to be paid to the proprietor:

