In the court of bankruptcy.

To the worshipful judge of bankruptcy for the county of
The petition of A B, of in the county of [trader.]

Respectfully sheweth:

That your petitioner, by misfortune, and without fraud, covin, or collusion, has become bankrupt, and is, as he verily believes, unable to pay his debts. Your petitioner annexes hereto a schedule of his estate and debts, as required by law, and is prepared to make a full and fair discovery of all his liabilities, and when and how the same were contracted, and also of his real estate and goods, and to produce his books of accounts, with all securities held, and furnish every kind of information relative to his estate within his power or control, and to receive and abide by the order of this court, in all things to be made, and desires that a fiat nisi of bankruptcy may issue against him;
