

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 18

- Lotbinière, Chartier de, criticizes important features of the Quebec bill, 532, 561, 564.
- Loughborough, Baron. See Wedderburn.
- Louisiana, trade in, 96.
- Loyalists, Haldimand authorized to make grants of lands to, 730; Haldimand gives Sir John Johnson instructions re tenure of land settled by Loyalists, note 2, p. 731; petition of Sir John Johnson and others in behalf of the Loyalists settled in Canada, 773; petition the King for relief from the French system of land tenure, 774; propose a plan to erect the country west of Lake St. Francis into one district to be subdivided into counties, with courts of justice, 774; Lieutenant Governor Hope's opinion of granting a separate government to, 796; referred to, 797, 842, 849; concerning their petition for alterations in mode of government and land tenure, 801; provision made in Carleton's instructions of 1786 for grants of lands to them, 829; and for the mode of holding such lands, 830; members of the legislative council protest against the postponement of relief which a proposed ordinance would afford them, 855; extract of letter from North authorizing aid to, 855; new districts authorized to be formed for the purpose of administration of justice, 860; decision of committee of Council as to the system of laws to govern them, 880; committee of Council recommend that the Loyalists should hold their lands according to the mode laid down in Carleton's Instruction of 1771, 938; desire to hold their lands in the same manner as those who resorted to Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, 940; petition to hold their lands free from seigniorial claims, 942, 945; desire to be governed by the British constitution and laws, 946; petition of the western Loyalists to Carleton asking for the extension of the British constitution to their settlement, 949; petition for measures to encourage trade, 950; to be granted their lands in free and common socage, 957; proposed division of the province, 957; Loyalists to be granted British laws and English land tenure, 957; Carleton recommends the appointment of a lieutenant governor for the four western districts of the province, 959; re claim that they desire to participate in a provincial assembly, 959; considered in relation to demand for house of assembly, 973.
- Lymburner, John, one of the grand jurors at Quebec, 214, 215.
- Lymburner, Adam, references to, 753, 954, 955, 977, 1029.
- Lymburner, Adam, agent in England of the element in Canada desiring a House of Assembly, note 1, p. 753; on the necessity of alteration in the mode of government in Quebec, note 1, p. 955; proposals as to distribution of representation in Lower Canada, 1029.
- Mabane, Adam, references to, 48, 277, 279, 674, 697, 703, 713, 816, 842, 854, 867, 869, 870, 871, 872, 874, 875, 879, 880, 882, 883, 884, 885, 886, 887, 888, 891, 892.
- Mabane, Adam, Commission as judge of Court of civil jurisdiction, 674; member of Board of Privy Council, 703; sends memorial to the Governor re charges of the Attorney General, 872; his reasons against trial by jury in civil causes, 886-891.
- Macaulay, Zachary, member of committee of Quebec petitioning for an assembly, 487, 488, 501, 587.
- Mackworth, Sir Herbert, member of British parliament, 512, 955.
- Maclean, Lieutenant Colonel, officer at Quebec during siege of 1775, 668.
- Madelaide Island, placed under the protection of Newfoundland, 164 (see also p. 570).
- Magistrates, of District of Montreal, protest against ordinance of February, 1770, note 1 p. 401; of Quebec, express opinion that the jurisdiction of justices of the peace be extended, 926; of Quebec, suggest improvement in matters of police, 926; recommend that a workhouse and almshouse be provided, 926; of Quebec, recommend that fees of physicians be regulated by the legislature, 928; of Catarqui, write to Johnson concerning trade and land tenure in their district, 942; of New Oswegatchie, write to Sir John Johnson re population, agriculture, and the settlement of the King's lands, 945.
- Maitland, Lieutenant Colonel, officer at Quebec, 47.
- Malone, Captain, officer at Quebec, 47.
- Mansfield, Lord, references to, 522, 534, 548, 549, 551, 554.
- Mansfield, Lord, renders judgment in Campbell vs. Hall, 522; defines power of King to alter and make laws, 525; draws up a new form of oath for the Quebec Bill, note 3, p. 554.
- Maritime Affairs, settled according to laws of English Court of Admiralty, 343.
- Marsham, Mr., member of British Parliament, favours the Habeas Corpus for Quebec, note 1, p. 955.
- Martial Law, Governor given power to execute, in time of war, 177; declared in Quebec by Carleton in 1775, 668.
- Martin, Mr., Secretary to the Lords of the Treasury, 65.
- Marriott, James, frames a code of laws for the province of Quebec, 445; source of text given in this volume, note 1, p. 424, note 1, p. 445; reviews the early administration of the colony, 445-483; endeavors to frame code of laws from facts furnished in several reports, 446; on the relation of Canada to old France, 447; basis on which code of laws should be formed, 447; remarks on status of civil law after the Cession, 454; refers to discretionary power of the governor, 454; on oaths to be taken by members of Council and Assembly, 461; suggests that four bills re courts of justice, common law, revenue, and religion be laid before parliament, 462; makes suggestion as to the limitation of the power of judges, 463, 464.