

worth a great deal more to its owner if the laws should be so framed as to eradicate the evil. Such laws would permit the sale of the mixed goods under their proper names, and thus protect both the manufacturer and the consumer. It may be added as an interesting item that chemists have not yet been able to determine the exact chemical composition of the peculiar flavoring of the maple.

Report of an Examination of a Forest Tract in Western North Carolina, by Franklin W. Reed. Bulletin No. 60, U. S. Bureau of Forestry.

This is a report of an examination of a forest tract of about 16,000 acres belonging to the Linville Improvement Company, whose main purpose is to develop it as a summer resort. The report suggests plans for deriving a revenue from the timber on the tract, and at the same time preserving and even increasing its beauty.
