Page Four

THE WEEKLY NEWS AND LITERARY JOURNAL OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW BRUNSWICK Est. 1880

Member, Canadian University Press

CO-EDITORS KATHLEEN BELL '45

BETTY DOUGHERTY '45 Frances Harrison '44 NEWS EDITOR Jean Smith '45 FEATURE EDITOR Betty Page '45 WOMEN'S EDITOR Marion Morrison '45 SPORTS EDITOR Charlotte Van Dine '47 PROOF EDITOR REPORTERS: Blanche Law '46, Dorothy Loughlin '46, Helen Baxter '47, Mary Whalen '47, Charlotte VanDine '47, Beulah Bateman '44 Marie Duffie '44, Marjorie Rowan '45

FREDERICTON, N. B., FEBRUARY 25th, 1944 VOL. 63

MRS. MACKENZIE

We have dedicated this, our co-ed issue of the Brunswickan, to our President's wife, Mrs. MacKenzie.

She has always taken a keen interest in the activities of the co-eds and has ever been willing to help us and advise us with our many problems. We shall miss her particularly at our teas and our banquets, where she was an ever-welcome guest.

Through Mrs. MacKenzie's efforts we have been abie to brighten the hall of the Arts Building with paintings by some things. of our foremost Canadian artists. A great improvement indeed! To Dr. and Mrs. MacKenzie go our best wishes for many more successful years.

Co-ed Week

Tradition cast its ensnaring roots into The Ladies' Society, discovered fertile soil, sprang to life, grew and flowered into what is called (among other names) Co-ed Week.

Man has ever been pursued by woman, and so we modern a gal; boy, what a voice she's got!' gals, not to be outdone by our common ancestor, Eve, started U. N. B.'s gal-chase-man week way back in 1928, when the co-U. N. B.'s gal-chase-man week way back in 1928, when the co-eds innivated the idea of a Leap Year Hop. On the next Leap ed the door. He said afterwards, Year the jamboree was continued and was so successful that "You had the blankest look of everybody clamored for another on the following year, regard-ever been seen." I think it he less of the four year interval. It became tradition.

Then as 1935 plowed its young face on the calendar, the have waiked right through it, so co-eds, realizing the importance of the time element decided dazed was I. That would have been that it was utterly and wholly necessary to set aside one week that it was utterly and wholly necessary to set aside one week Well, anyway, I got downstairs to successfully bait and trap that elusive male. This, too, became tradition.

From out the pages of your funny paper in Al Capps "Li'l knocked together, giving me a little more support. It gave everyone Abner" came Sadie Hawkin's Day to gladden the hearts of all plenty of time to get ringside seats females. Some of Sadie's excellent systems were incorporated at the phone, too. They were all females. Some of Sadie's excellent systems were incorporated eyeing the phone hungrily and giv-into Co-ed Week, but the original theme still remains prominent. ing me lots of advice, which helped As an interesting sidelight we inform you that our Co-ed Week no end. was the forerunner of the now famous Sadie Hawkins Week on other campuses. The co-eds ever eager to tackle new and bigger things and have garlic for dinner. I picked up to show their ability and skill, five years ago edited and pub- the phone, but so weak was I that lished the first co-ed edition of The Brunswickan. In 1940 I nearly dropped it. (I must weigh novelty lent its charm by decreeing that the issue should appear. of my strength, I finally leaned on on pink paper, also in the same year a hilarious fixture was added to the week when the co-eds challenged the faculty to a "H-h-helio!" adding timidly and hoping it would next with formula rip-roaring game of hockey. Tradition says Co-ed Week is ours, girls, let's always see got here." it flourish!

GAIETY

MON .-- TUES .-- WED.

"THIS IS THE ARMY"

in technicolor starring

MEN OF THE ARMED FORCES

THURS .- FRI.-SAT.

"SAHARA" with

J. CARROL NAISH

JOAN LESLIE

GEORGE MURPHY

BRUCE BENNETT

Students---

HUMPHRY BOGART in

by Major The following little itetm discovered in the University of Alberta's 'Gateway''. serves as the ideal means of recounting the terrors, flutterings and palpitations assim-ilated with Co-ed week.

THE BRUNSWICKAN

SCRAPIN'S

SAYS HE:-

If I were a poet I would speak of clouds with silver linings, of silvery voices twinkling like stars or a beautiful fall night, all in good metre, too. But I'm no poet; I am just a sby tongue-struck Varsity man. A man of seclusion and books, of dreams, too.

It doesn't pay to dream; someone may be psychic or something. I feel No. 17 that is what must have happened to me. My window faces the street. the street of beautiful women. Ab I had such lovely dreams of the impossible happening, me being asked to the Wauneita. And was I?

I must weakly confess "Yes". It happened one night in a break sometimes take from my studies to pray. In this break I was dreaming of a beautiful nameless co-ed escorting me to the Wauneita ball You see, I usually play safe and dream of seemingly impossible

Just as we started on our first dance, a dreamy waltz, the phone rang. I broke off to comment, Some lucky dog getting an invite." There were only two of us in the house without one. Then before I could get on with our dance some mug yells my name.

"Hey, -, you're wanted on the phone," and gleefully adds for the benefit of the rest of the guys, "it's That got me. I got weak and I stumbled over the chair, shaky. hadn't opened the door I would by taking a step when my knees

If, by your sergeant, your wife or your dearie, You're sent to the doghouse to grieve for your sin, Don't prove you belong there by growling and whining! And THAT'S where a Sweet Cap fits in !

SWEET CAPORAL CIGARETTES "The purest form in which tobacco can be smoked"

ANYTIME IS A BETTER TIME WITH A SWEET CAP

The Inquiring Reporter

What do you think of Co-ed Week? It's a restful week. ED NAPKE
I never gave it much thought. MICKEY MACKAY
A noble institution LESLIE STEVENS
They ought to have it every see ond week and give us a break. BRENT HOOPER
It's great for those of us who are hermits at heart. BUD SMITHER
It's O.K. but the co-eds are to bashful! FRANK DOHANE
It's a Red-Light Week. JOHNNY BAXTE
Auditor: Now let's see your pin slips. Filing clerk (fem.): Sir!

"WE MUST BEWARE of trying to

IT DOES TASTE C

Friday, February 25th, 1944

Join the Picobac pleasant hours in ever cool sweet converse panion which enlive riches solitude.

GROWN IN SUNNY.

Bowling

(Continued from page two) Wildcats, and Russ Bishop led the winners, while Stan Spicer and 'Skip' Ayers topped the Roughriders' scoring, Roughriders were minus Paul Robinson and Dick Mallory, two good men, and their return may make a big difference in tomorrow's result. Jake Estey, R.C.A.F., ex-'46, filled in for the Roughriders.

Walter Ross led the onslaught on the pins with 132 for high single and 348 for high three. Skip Ayers posted 128 his second string to trail Walter very closely, and Hatfield, Horgan, Fainer and McKinnon all chalked up high single strings.

I collapsed in a chair alongside and thanked heaven because of the nearness of the audience we didn't it some time.) Reaching the limit response at the other end, "I finally Then that voice, that beautifui voice so cool and collected. (I'll bet she rehearsed it.) Boy, she is plenty nice. She put me at ease PROGRAMMES FOR WEEK FEB. 28th right away; don't ask me how she did it. All I can remember from there on, that she was calling for me at such and such a time, and we would be off to that Wauneita ball. Boy, I'm still dreaming of that first dance.

> This scene took place at Underwood Ave., and the corner of At him-da-da St., where the magnanimous Hotel Diddle-de-Foc is situated. Professor Hot-Smock Trovinsky had been awfully removed for not paying his diddly Fees. This fellow got himself up a block away, when he remembered that his umorella was still in his vacated room. So he switches back and sneaks up stage. H. J. BEAIRSTO wcose hands are eese?

CAPITOL

MON .- TUES .- WED.

"Where Are Your Children"

Also "THE MAD CHOUL" with

Turhan Bey Evelyn Ankers

THURS .--- FRI .--- SAT.

"THE BACKET MAN"

Tom Neal Jeanne Bates

Added Attraction

Ken Maynard Hoot Gibson

IN "WILD HORSE STAMPEDE"

JACKIE COOPER In

When in need of Life Insurance for Protection, or for Pension Purposes -Consult---A. H. PORTER The Standard Life Assurance Company Canadian Bank of Commerce Building FREDERICTON, N. B. Established 1825 Phone 380 to his room. Now a newly married couple have moved in and are at the baby-talking Both - sssmack He - and 'oos teeny, eeny we wips are woose? She - wese wooby-wed wips are He -- and oose teeny eeny we

She - eese itty bitty eeny we hands are oose She - whose big scwatchy wiskles are ees? Professor - When cose come to the ambwella that's mine!

build a society in which nobody counts for anything except a politician or an official, a society where enterprise gains no reward, and thrift no privileges." The Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill.

What is PRIVATE ENTERPRISE? It is the natural desire to make your own way, as far as your ability will take you; an instinct that has brought to this continent the highest standard of life enjoyed by any people on earth. It is the spirit of democracy on the march.

Churchill is right!

THE ROYAL BANK OF CANADA

