The Administration stressed "no administrative academic sanctions in any form will be brought against any student . . . should she or he decide to honour the CUEW and/or YUSA picket lines." Do you feel you will suffer or have you suffered academically already?

Andrew Prenick, Business II
"No, I haven't suffered at all because none of my professors decided to boycott the strike."

Molly Lee, English II
"Some of my classes were cancelled so now I am behind in my readings. This tends to be a problem for many students."

Glenn Lee, Political Science II
"Yes, I have suffered because some professors are willing to extend deadlines while other professors won't do that at all."

Henry Morton, Economics III
"No, not at all. All of my classes are economics and maths so they don't have any TAs."

Clara Cardona, Political Science II
"Yes, I have suffered definitely because the reading material scheduled was not well understood. We need the guidance of the professors."

Mary Attardo, Business I
"Well, I haven't really as of yet, but I will feel it in about a week or so. My tests have been rescheduled and I have three in one day next week."

Dialogue on drinking
Think about it. Talk about it.
Take action.

TAKE ACTION ON OVER-DRINKING.

"I like the taste of a cold beer on a hot day, but I certainly don't think you have to get the gang together with a couple of cases of beer just to celebrate the fact you've had a bit of exercise."
