

are at such times farther apart-even than in reality according to miles. I will not burden ~~with~~ you with another address for Brown, Sibley, 123 Pall Mall Ltd's good always. I doubt if I return this winter - being homeless is not a cheering condition, & Cambridge, with news inhabiting Lady Hill, is untearable. - I quite agree with you about Fezwell, & think we shall some day know more.
With trust-wishes for your happiness and success is assured, believe me always sincerely yours Elizabeth H. King 11523 its responsibilities, its cause, its anxieties. It was no doubt a fine sure conclusion that you should be returned with acclamation by your constituents. but I am glad you were spared extra fatigue & worry. Now I hope you may, in a measure, have more time for yourself & that you can give yourself to "letters" (the lighter hand) & so not only be come the remarkable & able Minister of Labour, but a culti-

W. L. Mackenzie King Papers

Volume 12

PUBLIC ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA