Ottawa 25th August 1902-

Gentlemen-

In further reference to your letter of the 1st March last, regarding the portions of land required for right of way of the Manitoulin and North Shore Railway through the Indian Holdings of James Keshik-gobinsas, Wilson Requinoux, John Mitchell and Louis Andrew, on the Whitefish River Indian Reserve, I beg to say that the <sup>land and</sup> improvements of James Keshik-gobinsas are valued at $81.90 and those of the other three Indians at $2.76, which amounts you will be good enough to transmit to the Department.

Your obedient servant

Secretary-
