

Let us have specimens of insects or diseases injurious to your crops. Living insects are preferable for study; give them sufficiently of their ordinary food to allow them to eat en route. As soon as you notice a serious invasion of your crops by such enemies, advise us immediately.

Your letters or parcels should be mailed to:

The Entomologist,

Department of Agriculture, Quebec.