

"A Man of His
me gives a moving avarre, the famous
mes, full of sudden
ut rush of history.
ry, full of thrilling
ramatic power and personages of the memorable period.

anada.

. Paper, 50c.
be writ down as a
s. His book is laid at mirth-provoking
Writing columns,
book as listening to

es to find readers.
and sells as well
d farmer strongly
n people, and the
alls to many a

althy tale, breath-
nd bringing to the

China of to-day).
ride of Japan."

nts fraught with undercurrent of

ilton Times,

HOUSES OF GLASS.

By DR. JAS. ALGIE. Paper, 50c.

"He has made his story so actively fertile that all readers will enjoy it for the tale itself, although its value lies in the vitality and truth of the ideas embodied. Human nature, as we know it, speaks everywhere. The book is an interesting study of human life."—Boston Ideas.

"It is a character study of profound interest."—Albany Times-Union.

"Far above the level of ordinary romances."—Rocky Mountain News.

A PAUPER MILLIONAIRE.

By AUSTIN FRYERS. Crown 8vo., Cloth, $1.00.

"The reader is carried along by the sheer actuality of the story from the first page to the last. A book that everyone should read."—The Sun.

"A capital story, which once begun, will be finished at a sitting."—Toronto Globe.

TERENCE.

By MRS. B. M. CROKER. Author of "Beyond the Pale," "Infatuation," etc. Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.00. Paper, 50c.

"A spirited story of a dashing Irish lover. The whole atmosphere of a breezy Irish wit, of a laughing, mischievous race, is in this fascinating story."—Vanity Fair.

THE PATH OF A STAR.

By MRS. EVERARD COTES (Sara Jeanette Duncan). With twelve full-page illustrations, by F. H. Townsend. Crown 8vo., Cloth, $1.25. Paper, 75c.

"The characters are drawn with an exquisite delicacy."—Western News.

"Richness and fullness of local coloring, brilliancy of style, smiting phrases, and the display of very pretty humor, are graces which are here in profusion. The interest never flags."—Pall Mall Gazette.

THE CROWN OF LIFE.

By GEO. GISSING. Author of "The Town Traveler," etc. Crown 8vo., Cloth, $1.00. Paper, 50c.

"In the rough, as well as the smooth, Mr. Gissing is at his best."—The Academy.

"It is, by all odds, the most important work Mr. Gissing has written."—Free Press.