

good laws well administered, with education progressing amongst our people, with industry, perseverance in the discharge of our duties, public and private, with full liberty, notwithstanding some differences of opinion, to worship God according to the dictates of our conscience, the Province of Quebec will do her part to make this Dominion of ours one of the brightest jewels in the crown of our beloved sovereign Queen Victoria, whom God long grant to reign over us.

The Treasurer sat down amid hearty cheering, announcing that his intention was only to pass one item to-day, and then the committee would rise and report progress.

BIBLIOTHEQUE
PARLEMENTAIRE