

Should any member receiving sick benefit have occasion to leave home, he shall leave word where he may be found. Said member under no circumstances to be away from home without the Lodge Surgeon's permission. Any member doing so shall forfeit his sick benefit.

Should a member frequent taverns or questionable places while receiving sick allowance, he shall forfeit it.

Any member of this degree on falling sick shall immediately notify the Secretary, whose duty it shall be to notify the first Committeeman.

Members when sick, and are able to do so, shall attend the Lodge Surgeon, at his office; and if not able to do so, the said Surgeon shall visit them.

It shall be the duty of the committee of this degree to attend sick members of the beneficiary department.

CLAUSE 11.

Due notice of sickness or death in the R.R.D. shall be sufficient for the beneficiary department of this degree.

CLAUSE 12.

Upon the death of a brother's wife, he shall receive the sum of 25c. per member; upon the death of a child between the ages of five and fifteen years, 10c. per member; upon the death of a brother, his widow, heirs or legatees, shall receive the sum of 50c. per member, to be paid by special assessments as a funeral benefit, unless the funds of the degree are sufficient to pay the same assessments.

CLAUSE 13.

Should the funds of this degree become low through any unusual amount of sickness, the Presi-