ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE BY CUTICURA

Mrs. Mattie Shaffer, of Cumberland, Miss., says: "Some time ago I used your Cutieura Remedies for my little afflicted babe with wonderful results. I had tried many other remedies without any benefit whatever, and Cuticura came to the rescue when my doctors and all other remedies had failed. One doctor pronounced it scrofuls, the other eczema. The little one was one solid sore, with scales and scabs from head to foot, when I started using Cuticura Soap and Ointment. The result was wonderful, and now my baby's face and body are smooth and clear." (signed) Mrs. Mattie Shaffer. Mrs. Mattie Shaffer, of Cumberland,

THE DUTY OF MOTHERS At the First Sign of Disfiguring Humors Is to Use Cuticura the Great Skin Cure

Every child born into the world with an inherited tendency to torturing, disfiguring humours of the Skin and Scalp, becomes an object of the most tender solicitude, not only because of its suffering, but because of the dreadful fear that the disfiguration is to be lifelong and mar its future happiness and prosperity. Hence it becomes the duty of mothers of such afflicted children to acquaint themselves with the best, the purest, and most effective treatment available, viz. the Cuticura Treatment, consisting of warm baths with Cuticura Soap, and gentle anointings with Cuticura Ointment, the great Skin Cure, and purest and sweetest of emollients. Cures made in childhood are speedy, permanent, and economical. Every child born into the world lients. Cures made in childhood are speedy, permanent, and economical.

Crown Attorney Smith Ex-Ald. Thos. Scullard Made the Victims, But Were Unable to Produce the Money.

He was a short man, tanned lace, short hair and verv bright dark brown eyes—poorly dressed, wearing a ragged peak cap—clean shaved.

When he walked into Crown Attorney H. D. Smith's office Wednesday afternoon Mr. Smith was talking to a couple of gentlemen, and was startled by the question in a clear ringing double forte tone of voice—clear ringing double forte tone of voice—

"Is the Crown in?"
When Mr. Smith had resovered sufficiently to find his voice he replied, "Yes, what do you want?"
"Well," replied the stranger, as he looked carefully around and drew nearer the Crown Attorney. "My name is William John Harris and I came in for my money. I heard some of the other heirs were coming in for their money, but there ain't any others—I'm it. I'm the only direct and correct heir,"
"How much is it? asked the Crown Attorney as he strove to gain time to grasp the situation,
"It's my grandfather's estate of seventy-five million acres of land at $6 an acre," came the response.
The man then looked in surprise at the Ridgetown bean merchant who were in the room and both of whom gasped and sought the acquaintance of the stranger.
"If you don't show anybody," con-

"Here now," said he, "I'm'the only direct and correct heir and I want my money."

The lawyer looked at him and replied good humoredly that he would be pleased to give the stranger his share if he only had the handling of the estate.

"Come now," persisted the stranger doggedly, "no fooling. I'm not going home till I get my money."

Mr. Smith then directed the stranger to a local lawyer, explaining to the demented stranger that he was sorry he (Smith) did not have he was sorry he (Smith) did not have that amount of money on hand at the time as it was not to be, in his particular line of business.

The stranger started out to look for the local lawyer, followed
