News of the Week

On March 24th an appropriation of $100,000,000 for war purposes was made by the Dominion Parliament at Ottawa,

Major Gault has taken charge of the Princess Patricias in place of Col. Farquhar, who was killed in action.

It has been learned that men from Eastern and Western Ontario, as well as the Princess Patricias, participated in the battle of Neuve Chapelle.

During the week the Turks were defeated in an attack on the town of Suez. * * * *

Germany has been requested to make explanations to Holland in regard to the sinking of the Dutch vessel, Medea.

. . . . Despatches state that the Russians captured at Przemysl 120,000 Austrians, and over 2,400 guns, of which 1,000 are heavy cannon. Famine, sickness, and lack of hospital accommodation, all contributed to the capitulation of the city. * * * *

During the week serious fighting has again taken place along the Yser, and also in the Vosges district, where the French, after several days' fighting, have succeeded in taking Hartmanns-Weilerkopf, a commanding position which will be useful for heavy artillery in opening a way to the Rhine. . . . Farther to the eastward a terrific battle has been raging in the Carpathians, midway between Dukla Pass and the Uszok Pass, and the capital of Bukowina, Czernowitz, has been evacuated by the Austrians. It is said that, owing to the fact that there are thousands of bodies unburied in the mountains, there is grave danger, as soon as spring opens, that an epidemic of cholera may rage in the plains and valleys of the Carpathians. . . From the Dardanelles, at the time of going to press, there is nothing of great moment to report. Under Rear-Admiral Robeck's new plan of attack, mine-sweeping operations are still in progress, and land forces are being landed to co-operate with the fleet, and to oppose the Turkish forces which are concentrating on both sides of the straits. Twenty-six thousand French troops have also been landed on the coast of Asia Minor to attack smyrne from the land side

In April.

Nonsense, Pussy Willow, Put your muff away! Fur is out of season When the sun has come to stay.

Robin has a tailored suit, The latest shade in red; The way he eyes the spinster birds, I'm sure it's turned his head.

The river wears, for boutonniere, A sun-gleam on his breast; And even I am out to air A brand - new coat and vest.

The giddy spring is in the veins Of every living thing, The tramp goes singing down the lanes, As happy as a king.

So-nonsense! Pussy Willow. Put your muff away! Fur is out of season When the sun has come to stay! -Ernestine Cohern Beyer.

Funnies. Three-year-old Willie, while eating his dinner, was asked if he would have some

"I don't care for any now," said he; pudding. "wait until my next appetite."
