Dublin. At a meeting of the committee of the Young Ireland Society, held on June 9th, arrangements ware made for celebrating the Wolfe Tone Anniversary. The pro-gramme for the occasion is an exception-aily attractive one, including a musical and literary re union, at which the pupils of the classes will seait. An interesting item in the proceedings will be a lecture on "Wolfe Tone," by Mr. C. H. Oldbam, B. A. Several members of the Parlia-mentary Party and other prominent Irish-men are expected to attend.

Wicklow.

Wicklow. Mr. Minahan, an Eoglish gentleman who happened to be staying at Bray, was struck with the in justice of preventing the inhermen from gathering seaweed on the shore. As the lawyers say, he worked up the case, and after much trouble, —which to him was a labor of love, —the fisher-men's cause was placed in the hands of Mr. Chance. In grateful remembrance of Mr. Minahan's services, the fishermen have presented him with a very compli-mentary address. Mr. Minahan's reply was full of sympathy for the poer men whom he had so largely helped to save from a territorialist's tyrany. Wexford.

Wexford. The track of the exterminator is found, at the present moment, in many parts of Wexford, but, perhaps, nowhere is it im pressed more than in the district over which the Brantown and Glynn National Lesgue held sway. League held sway. It is extredy s fort-night ago since a number of evictions were carried out, and the district thrown into a state of ferment; yet, another visit was paid by Emerson and his satellites, think, ing, no doubt, that the spirit which revolt against the payment of what are considered rack-rents had been subdued by the scene they had just passed through. On June 8th, a stealthy march was made by Emer-non and his evicting men, to the farm of Mr. Rothwell, Coolstoff, and a number of ostile were seized, and driven to the Pound at Toghmon. But all this, as i turned out was a simple prelude to that which was to come. On the next morning the expedition, ac ompanied by a strong escort of police and bailiff, again set out on their terg unealled in numbers, in answer to the now familiar. A rather uneary look among the expedition betakened that all was not right, that, pertaps, some fitch had been discovered in the proceed ings, and police scouts kurrying back and forward confined this. The death is announced, June 11th, of the Rev. Father Healy, O. P., Holy Croas, Tralee. The rev. gentleman was spending some days in Youghal when he was setted with what appeared to be a passing illness. On June 5th, a large number of the Denny tenantry, from Liscahane, waited on the sgent, Mr. Francis Denny, on the payment of the March rent. The tenants demanded a reduction of 35 per cent., which was refused, and they declined to pay at a reduction of 25 per cent. The lands are bigbly rented, and the tenants are reduced to severe straits through the present bad condition of things. Limerick. Limerick.

Limerick. Recently, 900 volumes of the library formed at Mount Shannon, the family seat, some three miles from Limerick, by the first Earl of Clare, notorious for his action in connection with the passing of the Act of Union, were removed to Lon-don, where they are to be offered for sale at public auction. The majority of the books are of great historical value, and will, no doubt, find ready purchasers. The Court has given permission for the removal of the books for sale, pending the settlement of the present litigation. At Mount Shannon there is a fine painting of Lord Clare, and some celebrities of the family. family.

of Lord Clare, and some celebrities of the family. The unselfabress of character of the new Bishop of Limerick, the most Rev. Dr. O'Dwyer has been strikingly shown. The clergy of the diocese met on June 7th, for the purpose of taking the necessary steps to present him with an address and testimonial, but a letter from the Prelate intimated that no testimonial would be accepted, while he would gledly receive their proffered address. This shows that the lamented Dr. Butler has found a worthy successor. A committee has been apointed to prepare the address. The citizens of Limerick are to include in their testimonial to their new Bishop ercozier of Celtic character. The commit-tee invite tenders for a design, and offer to competition is not limited to goldsmiths, but isopen to all artists skilled in Celtic twark. Dohn Mesgher, Esq., J. Mr. Charles Ganson, Dublin, has served Mr. Charles Ganson, Dublin, has served writs on four tenants on his Courtnabools estate, near Callan. This harch action was entirely uncalled for, as the tenants are reasonable reduction. The people of the district are highly indignant to have re-spectable and hard working neighbors threatened with eviction, in reply to their solicitation to have a small per centage de-dicted from the impossible rent levied on their holdings, which they have brought to a state of fertility by unemitting toil. It is admitted by most competent valuers that the land has depreciated by 40 per cent, within the last few years, and int. Charles Ganson expect to realize as much from his estate this year as he did when the prices of all agricultural produce were nearly double what they are as t present. nearly double what they are at present. It is patent, to everybody that he is only trying to achieve what is impossible. Galway.
