ing, June 28th, it was found that burglars had entered the vaults of the Ocean Bank, and carried off money and bonds to the amount of nearly a milion of dollars. About June 12 h a stranger hired of a broker in the basement of the building a small effice for an insurance agency, child of Charles R. and Sarah Sargent, late of Haliand moved in at his leisure a desk, wardrobe, late of the structure of the structu &: By standing upon this desk, the burglars cut through the floor into the banking room above. How the thieves opened the costly combication lock on the principal door to the vault is not known, but a second iron door was opened with the key left hanging there, and the third was pried from its hinges with powerful jackscrewe, sledges and cold chisels, with which implements they made their way into the two Marvin safes. Much of the property belonged to private individuals, being deposited there for safety. On Wednesday morning a small trunk was standing on the sidewalk in the Six'h Ward, directed to Capt. Jourdan, of the Police, which was found to contain $270,000 of the missing boads and securities.

N. B—To encourage the formation of Sabbath Schools where none before existed, (as well as the more efficient support of those already in operation) in poor neighborhoods, the Society by the genorous aid of the London Tract Society, will furnish Libraries to schools of the above class, at half the Catalogue prices of the Society.

The Ladies in connection with the Methodist Church at Windsor, beg to intima's to the public that they intend holding a BAZAAR during the early part of September, for the purpose of obtaining means to enlarge the Church of that place, as its present capacity is unequal for the accommodation—of the rapidly increasing congregation. As the expense in connection with the Methodist Church at Windsor, beg to intima's to the public church at Windsor, beg to intima's > ladies, in their noble endeavors for the promotion Subscriptions will be thankfully received by any of the members of the Committees. Miss Sophia Smith, Committee Mrs Johnson, Mrs Elisha Card, for Tables of FANCY ARTICLES Mrs Benj Smith. Committee for Tabbles of Mrs George Smith, Mrs Pellow,
