MEMORIAL CROSS.—Mr. J. H. Murphy, Sculptor, Barrington Street, has just completed by order of the Legislature, a handsomely designed and admirably executed Memorial Cross in marble to be placed over the grave of a girl named Catharine Crowley aged twelve years who lost her life in rescueing a younger brother and sister from a burning house in Pugwash, in the month of October last. On the memorial i inscribed the following :-" In memory of Cath erine Crowley, a victim of filial love. Having rescued a brother and sister from the flames of her father's dwelling, she exclaimed, "Mothe all is over with me now, but I have saved my brother and sister! Expired Oct. 15, 1869, aged 12 years." The memorial is executed in Mr. Murphy's best style, and in design and finish,

MELANCHOLY DEATH BY DROWNING .-- WO regret to learn of the melancholy death of a young man named George Smith, a son of James Smith, Esq., of Upper Falmouth, who was drownded while swimming in the river at that place on the 10th inst. The deceased was a good swimmer and it is supposed he must have taken a cramp. He was 22 years of age and greatly respected by all of his acquaintances, and his sudden death has cast a gloom over the community. The body was discovered when the tide fell. His brother was in the water when the affair occurred and had a narrow escape himself .- Windsor Mail.

FRESHWT .- An unusual freshet for the sea on was caused by the heavy and steady rain of Friday night last. A new saw mill owned by Mr. John Bent, Salem, was floated away, and a bridge across the Napan barely escaped per Maccan, was carried out, with the approaches, and travelling rendered very inconvenient by having to be done through fields

CUNRERLAND COUNTY ELECTION .-- The Hon. Dr. Tupper was elected on the 15th ult., without opposition, as the representative of the County of Cumberland. After the election he was presented with an address from Mariner Wood, Esq., and 600 other inhabitants of the County of Westmoreland, N. B. expressing the satisfaction with the result and manner of the elect on: and earnestly pressing upon upon his attention the importance of the proposed Canal to connect the head waters of the Bay of Fundy with those of the Gulf of St. Lawrence: to which, the Hon. the President of the Queens Privy Council for Canada, &c. &c., &c., made a suitable reply, pledging himself to do every-thing in his power to hasten the accomplishment ot so important a public work.
