INKSATER AND WILSON OF PARIS WON SCOTCH DOUBLES TROPHY LAST NIGHT

Defeated Their Opponents from Sydenham St. in Final
Game, Giving Paris the Cup for the First Time—
Other Bowling Res ults Made Yesterday.

Very large numbers were assembled last evening on the greens of the Brantford Club in order to witness the final round in the Expositor trophy, Scotch Doubles Tourney, which was fought out between Messrs. Cowborough and Hagey of Sydenham Club, Terrace Hill, against Messrs. Inksater and Wilson of Paris, the latter proving victorious and carrying off the cup for the first time in the four years that the tourney has been held.

Eight rinks were left yesterday in the Expositor trophy, with the 4th round, semi-finals and finals yet to be played. The fourth round eliminated four rinks, as follows:
Expositor Trophy—Fourth Round
Wilson and Sheppard beat Ingis and Spence.
Cowborough and Hagey beat Ricker and Burnett.
Paterson and Waterous beat McFarland and Millard.
Inksater and Wilson beat Dowling and Lyle.

With the race now narrowed down to four rinks, the excitement became more marked than ever before, and the sympathies of many rested with Messrs. Inksater and Wilson in the fray, because of their town never yet having carried off the trophy. The semi-finals saw the routing of Messrs. Wilson and Sheppard by the Terrace Hill rink, and of Messrs. Paterson and Waterous by the surviving Paris bowlers, who in the finals defeated their opponents by the following score:

Expositor Finals
Inksater and Wilson—
100 611 312 001 110 10—19
Cowborough and Hagey—
013 000 000 110 001 04—11

At the close of the final game, Ald. J. S. Dowling was called upon to present the trophy to the winners, which he did after making an appropriate speech for the occasion. The champions replied, thanking all for the courteous treatment accorded them, and cheers were given by all for the Paris men.

The El Fair trophy has not reached the finals, but at present six rinks are still in the running for it; the games will be played off this afternoon. The results of the third, fourth and fifth rounds are as follows:

El Fair Trophy—Third Round.
Cromar and Stinson drew a bye.
Ingis and Henderson beat Laskey and Hare.

Adams and Garley beat Vandierstine and Bussett.
Edmondson and Patterson beat Bond and Milne.

Coroy and Kingdom beat Gowman and Buck.
Wood and Pilling beat Miller and Hendry.

Smiley and Crooks beat Bull and Burke.
Robinson and Landmore beat Reed and Howie.

Cowan and McAdams beat Howie and Turnbull.
Willey and Eckel beat McBride and Robertson.

Caspeil and Newsome beat Mabon and Neill.
Vanstone and Shepperson beat Tench and Hurley.

McPhail and McPhail beat Grant and Comerford.
Parker and Watson beat Scott and Ellis.

Fifth Round
Ingis and Henderson beat Adams and Garley; Wood and Lahey beat Smiley and Crooks; Caspeil and Newsome beat Vanstone and Shepperson; McPhail and McPhail beat Parker and Watson; Dowling and Lyle beat McFarland and Millard; Ingis and Spence drew a bye; Paterson and Waterous beat Wilson and Sheppard.

Last night saw the conclusion of the consolation tourney, played for by J. S. Dowling and Rev. J. W. Gordon against Dr. Palmer and Geo. D. Watt; the final score being as follows:

Consolation Finals
Dowling and Gordon—
100011210101001010—10
Palmer and Watt—
010100001020110100—8

The detailed results of the consolation are:

CONSOLATION TOURNEY
Second Round
Palmer and Watt beat Burnley and Ryerson; Inksater and St. Clair beat Burns and Higginson; Ryan and Moffatt beat Biggs and Hare; Bloxham and Stiles won by default from Oldham and Smith; Dowling and Gordon beat Wicks and Schofield.

Third Round
Bloxham and Stiles drew a bye; Palmer and Watt beat Inksater and St. Clair; Dowling and Gordon beat Ryan and Moffatt.

Consolation, Semi Finals
Dowling and Gordon drew a bye; Palmer and Watt beat Bloxham and Stiles.

Dick Rudolph Prefers Box to Bar

Dick Rudolph, former Toronto twirler, and now with the Boston Braves, would now be Richard Rudolph, Esq., attorney-at-law, if his father had had his way. Rudolph, who was 27 years old last Saturday, was born in New York City, and from his infancy his father, a linotype pounder on one of the New York papers, proposed to make a lawyer of him.

He sent Dick to Fordham College, but, as Dick says, "I won so many ball games that I didn't have time to monkey with the law." He spent only a year in college and then accepted an offer to twirl for Toronto in 1910. The Leafs sold him to the Giants in 1911, but he was turned back to Toronto and stayed there until sold to the Braves in 1913.

Tris Still Leads Tyrus

The manner in which Tris Speaker is plying the leather covered pellet on the trade mark, game after game, is making it a hard job for the batters in Ban Johnson's league. Tris is hitting better than ever he did during his whole career and all pitchers fear him, which, incidentally, makes it easier for him to get a good hard wallop at the ball. Recently Eddie Plank pitched a two-hit game against Cleveland, and it happened to be Tris who collected both safeties. Cobb, to overtake him, must hit at the rate of .410 for the balance of the year, while Speaker can land on top hitting at .345 from now until the end of the season. Yet Cobb has always come through at the psychological moment. Will he make good once again?

The Leafs are Still Climbing

Toronto, Sept. 6.—While the Leafs were taking the hustle out of the Hustlers from Rochester at the Island Stadium yesterday, the Montreal Royals were engaged in an unsuccessful attempt to rope the stampering Bisons at the Buffalo corral. The Islanders came through with a 7 to 5 victory, but the front-running Bisons evaded the Royal larks in a 4 to 0 contest. Unless the Herd drop in the first three innings is what withstood the 11-hour attack of the Hustlers. At the end of the third frame the Islanders were in front by a score of 5 to 1. Extremes met on the pitching slab when McGigue, long and left-handed, encountered Herche, short and right-handed.

FOR NATIONALIZATION OF RAILWAYS.

By Courier Leased Wire.
Birmingham, England, Sept. 5.—A determined stand for nationalization of the railroads of Great Britain was taken to-day by the Trades union congress, representing nearly 2,500,000 men. The congress demanded acquisition of the railroads by the state and a voice in their control for the workers. The project for the creation of a ministry of labor also was approved by a large majority.

Assertions made by David Lloyd-George, Secretary for War, that workers were not doing all that they should were denounced unanimously, and it was pointed out that 90 per cent of the soldiers in the trenches were workmen. Many hard words were spoken in regard to the secretary, and a retraction from him was demanded.

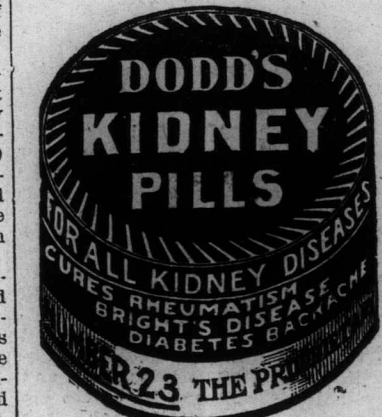

The possibility of industrial conscription was discussed at length and the congress registered a strong protest against the sending of soldiers to work in factories unless they are placed on the same footing as civilians in regard to treatment and wages.

Philadelphia Really Won

Philadelphia, Sept. 6.—Boston broke even in a double-header here yesterday, Philadelphia winning the first game 5 to 2, and the visitors the second 7 to 1. In the opening event Philadelphia bunted repeatedly on Shore and Ruth, six of their hits being safe bunts, and these tactics won the contest. In the second game Meyers in two innings filled the bases by hitting a batsman, and each time a single and an error followed, scoring three runs in each inning. Scores: R.H.E.
First game—
Philadelphia . . . 1010020x—5 11 3
Boston . . . 01001000—2 8 0

Phillies and Dodgers Tied

Boston, Sept. 6.—The Braves dropped from first place 3 to 0 third and Philadelphia advanced from second place to a coupling with Brooklyn in the lead of the National League race as a result of the champion's 4 to 2 win over Boston here to-day, and Brooklyn's victory over New York. A second game between Boston and Philadelphia went five innings to a scoreless tie, when it was called off because of darkness. Scores: R.H.E.

TOUGH CONTESTS FOR MANY SEATS IN B. C. ELECTIONS

Woman Suffrage is Only Issue Result Which Is Certain.

SOLDIERS' VOTES IS GREAT QUESTION.

Vancouver, Sept. 5.—The only certainty in British Columbia's coming elections, which commence, but do not end, on September 14, is that woman's suffrage will be passed. Practically no one is voting against the referendum, which will come into force at the New Year.
Prohibition is admittedly not so strong as it was during the enthusiasm of mid-campaign a few months ago, but the prohibitionists are still probably entitled to their boast that they will get 65 per cent. of the poll. Bank on soldiers' votes.
The soldiers' vote is expected to have a big effect on prohibition, just as it will in the general election. Probably seventy thousand voters will be polled in the contest. Of these more than eighteen thousand will be votes of soldiers absent from their homes.
The wets have been laying up hopes that the soldiers in England will not approve of a prohibition bill presented during their absence, fighting for the Empire. On the other hand, the prohibition forces are receiving many promises of help from the men in khaki.
The most potent argument of the anti-prohibitionist is the threat from London that prohibition without compensating English shareholders in breweries and hotels will give British Columbia a fearful black eye with English investors. If prohibition passes undoubtedly a vigorous campaign for compensation will be commenced in British Columbia.
Premier Bowser has agreed to refer the subject to a commission for late inquiry, provided he is returned with a majority that will keep him at the head of the Government.
The Conservative Premier and H. C. Brewster have just completed rival speaking tours of the province. The Liberal leader declares there is no single safe Conservative seat, and the Opposition, he says, must sweep the country. Premier Bowser has it figured out that the next House of Commons members will be made up of thirty-one Conservatives and sixteen Liberals or thereabouts.
The outlook is so much up in the air that there is scarcely any betting on the result. The six seats in Vancouver and the four in Victoria are likely to split about evenly.
In Power 13 Years.
The only obstacle Mr. Bowser has to surmount is that the Conservatives have been in power thirteen years, and many people, without stopping to measure, demand a

GENEROUS DONATIONS COME FROM WINNIPEG

Sub-Committee Sends $11,000 More to the Belgian Relief Committee.

Winnipeg, Man., Sep. 6.—Between June 23rd and August 5th, inclusive, of this year, the Winnipeg sub-committee of the Belgian Relief Committee of Canada has raised $11,000.00. This is only a continuation of the excellent work that has been done previously in this city.

Winnipeg, the centre of the Western country, which has profited so much through the full crops of the last two seasons, has not been slow in appreciation of the fact that out of the fullness of their revenue they owe something to that country which is now on the verge of starvation as a result of its determined stand against the enemies of Canada and the Empire in the first days of the war.

Winnipeg, like all other parts of Canada, will get this money back, as every cent of the money contributed for Belgian relief is spent in Canada by the Belgian relief committee. Money is of no use in Belgium—food is the great necessity. The food is purchased in Canada, so donations are of the "bread cast upon the water" type.
The contributions made in Winnipeg have been forwarded to the Belgian Relief Committee office, 59 St. Peter St., Montréal, under whose careful administration $2,500 is made to provide food for a Belgian family one month.

change. If this attitude is very widespread the Government may be defeated.

The Liberals are strongly featuring Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper as their leading speaker. For instance, at Dominion Hall on Friday evening, Sir Charles occupied an hour and a quarter, while all the Liberal candidates confined themselves to less than ten minutes each.
Two former Liberal members of the Dominion House are likely to lead in their respective constituencies.

Ralph Smith may lead the nineteen candidates, who are running in Vancouver and Wm. Sloan, once a Federal member and a Senate possibility, probably has a safe seat in Nanaimo.

The Hon. Wm. Manson and the Hon. W. R. Ross, two members of the Bowser Cabinet, are having very tough campaigns in their northern constituencies.
Polling in British Columbia itself will take place on September 14, but the soldiers' vote will not be counted until a month later. So there may be half a dozen candidates who will be on tenterhooks until the "foreign" returns arrive to settle close contests.
