AUSTIN G. L. TRIBUTE, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

Located through Newspaper Item
Harry Powell Chief of Police of Alexandria Bay arrested a young man named Ross Trecky in Brockville, wanted at the Bay on a charge of grand larceny. Trickey claims he is innocent and waived deportation proceedings and accompanied the officer willingly. On February 7, Trickey crossed the river here and obtained permission from Immigration Inspector Frank Knight to enter the country for the purpose of visiting friends for two weeks. Through an item in the district correspondence of the Brockville Times, C. A. Benson Justice of Peace at Alexandria Bay, learned of the presence of Trickey near Lyn and communicated with Immigration Officer Knight with the result that the Immigration Officer accompanied by County Constable Dyer took a trip to the country Saturday and located Trickey and brought him to Brockville. The Alexandria Bay authorities were notified and Chief Powell started at once for Brockville. Arriving at Morristown, N. Y., the officer found that the ferry was not making the trip on account of the heavy going so securing a pair of long rubber boots for himself and an extra pair for Trickey he walked over and both tramped back to Morristown in the afternoon in time to catch the train for Alexandria Bay.

Death of Mrs. Albert E. Shaver
The death occurred on Feb. 26 at the Brockville General Hospital of a well known resident of the town of Brockville, when Mrs. Albert E. Shaver, wife of ex-councillor A. E. Shaver, passed away after an illness extending over several months. The late Mrs. Shaver was 46 years of age, and was born near Athens, the daughter of the late Willoughby Rowson. Besides her husband she leaves one son, Jim, aged 5 years, also her mother, Mrs. Lowsome, and one sister and one brother, Etta of Brockville, and J. Stanley, near Athens. The deceased was a member of St. Peter's church. With the exception of a few years residence in New York city, she has always lived in this vicinity. Her husband recently sold out his business and enlisted with the 156th Battalion, taking up a non-commissioned officer's course.

Death of Mrs. Ann Derbyshire.
At her late home at Wight's Corners, a mile north of Athens, Mrs. Ann Derbyshire, relict of the late Benjamin Derbyshire, died on Feb. 23, aged 85 years. The deceased had been an invalid for many years, a great sufferer from rheumatism, but she bore all with much patience, and during her long years of confinement to her home always kept bright and cheerful. Her husband died some 17 years ago, and strangers and kind neighbours have ministered to her in her declining years. An adopted daughter, Mrs. Parkins, of Lindsay, and many friends are left to mourn her death. The funeral took place on Friday afternoon at her late home and was conducted by the pastor, Rev. Geo. Edwards, of Athens, and the body was placed in the vault to await burial in the spring beside her husband in the Athens cemetery.

Grant—McCann
Miss Sadie McCann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Terence McCann, was united in marriage to Bernard Grant, on Monday morning, Feb. 21, in St. Edward's church, Westport. Both contracting parties are among Westport's popular young people and their many friends extend heartiest congratulations.

Mrs. M. A. Steacy Dead
There passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Levi Wilson, Athens, on Thursday, March 2, Mrs. M. A. Steacy, aged 67 years and 9 months. Deceased was sick but a few days, the end coming very peacefully. She leaves to mourn her loss two daughters, Wilson Barrington, Frankville, and Mrs. M. L. Wilson, Athens, also two sisters and one brother, namely, Mrs. A. Coad, Brockville, Mrs. S. Klyne, Toledo, and Mr. R. H. Connor, Frankville. The funeral service was conducted in Christ's church on Saturday, March 4, by the Rev. W. G. Swayne. The remains were placed in the Athens vault.
